Japanese Troops In Canton While Masses Flee

Invaders Rush Into City and Find Only 50,000 People

Plants Blown Up

CANTON (AP)—A Japanese tank corps rumbled into Canton Friday afternoon, scoring one of the most astounding victories of the Japanese-Chinese war.

The tanks were followed by detachments of the south China expeditionary force which just 10 days ago landed on the shores of Bias Bay, 125 miles southeast of the south China metropolis.

Shortly after noon the first tanks approached the Kwangtung provincial capital from the north. Two hours later they were rumbling down the East Bund.

Apparently they had met no opposition from the hundreds of thousands of provincial troops that had been massed north and east of Canton to check the invasion of the estimated 60,000 Japanese troops.

In the wake of the tank corps came a long line of trucks bearing Japanese infantrymen.

WORKS BLOWN UP

Before the Japanese arrived, the Chinese blew up the $8,000,000 Pearl River bridge and blasted important utilities plants and factories with land mines, applying the "scorched earth and broken tile" policy with which Chinese forces have been falling back since the Japanese-Chinese war started July 7, 1937.

Large fires were visible in some sections of the metropolis. The 1,000,000 civilian population of Canton proper had been reduced to an estimated 50,000 by the mass exodus of noncombatants since the south China invasion started last week.

The entrance of the Japanese came as a complete surprise, although the blasting of the Pearl River bridge had served as a warning the invaders were approaching in their "back door" campaign.

Intermittent shellfire could be heard Friday night, indicating there still might be some flanking resistance on the outskirts of the city.

OFFENSIVE SOON ON SPAIN FRONT

Observers Look for Loyalist Drive Before Winter

HENDAYE, France (AP)—Reports from government sources indicated today plans were virtually complete for an offensive designed to strengthen the government's positions before the third winter of the Spanish civil war sets in.

General Jose Maja, commander-in-chief of the government's central front, and General Matallana, his chief of staff, returned to Madrid after a series of conferences with commanders at Barcelona and Valencia.

A decrease in the number of reports of troop movements gave border observers the impression concentrations going on for days had been completed.

There was no indication of where the government offensive would start, although many observers looked to the Ebro River front of eastern Spain.

No Change of Policy on Arms Manufacture

Mackenzie Tells Bren Inquiry Arsenal Plan Not Abandoned

Cost Now Too Great

OTTAWA (CP)—Control of profits on armament contracts is a problem of administration and not one which can be solved by legislation, a special committee of senior civil servants, headed by Dr. O. D. Skelton, undersecretary of state for external affairs, reported early in 1937, it was disclosed at the Bren gun inquiry today.

The report of that committee led to the appointment of the interdepartmental committee on the control of such profits. The new committee eventually considered and approved the defence department's contract with the John Inglis Company of Toronto for the supply of 7,000 Bren light machine guns on a cost plus basis—the contract now being investigated as a result of an article in Maclean's magazine by Lieut.-Col. George A. Drew, K.C., of Toronto.

The Skelton committee's report was put in evidence today as Hon. Ian Mackenzie, Minister of Defence, occupied the witness stand and reviewed discussions in the department on the question of government or private ownership of arms factories. He said there had been no change in policy and the department had not abandoned a project for a larger arsenal establishment.

In the face of facts, however, the project had been postponed. The arsenal would have cost $30,000,000, and under existing financial conditions was so fantastic he had not even submitted it to the cabinet.

Thirteen Forestry Camps on Island

Deferred Pay for Single Men to Last Longer This Winter

Vancouver Island will be the centre of the winter forestry camp scheme for single men, as it was last year, with 13 of the 20 camps located on the island.

Details of the program were made public today following yesterday's agreement between Hon. Norman Rogers, federal Minister of Labor, and Hon. George S. Pearson, B.C. Minister of Labor.

The largest camp will be at Otter Point operated by the public works department where 300 men will be put to work on improving the West Coast Road. Other projects in the vicinity of Victoria will be at Dean Park, north Saanich, Mount Douglas Park, and Thetis Lake. Undertakings at other points in the island will be carried on from last year.

The men will receive 30 cents an hour, or $2.40 a day, less 75 cents a day for board and a portion of their earnings will be held back to be paid as deferred pay at the rate of $4 a week.

Deferred pay next summer will extend to June 1, a month longer than last summer. One of the reasons for the spectacular "sit-down" strike and trek to Victoria by single men was believed to be the fact that their deferred pay ran out before the summer seasonal work opened up in the province.

Total cost of the winter program is estimated at $800,000, divided evenly between the two governments.

Chiang Kai-shek Leaves Hankow

SHANGHAI (CP-Havas)—General Chiang Kai-shek has left Hankow, threatened central China metropolis, for Changsha, capital of Hunan province, it was reported today.

Changsha is 185 miles southwest of Hankow.

The Japanese are less than 50 miles from Hankow.

READY TO TESTIFY

Awaiting a call to go before the jury at the trial of three men and a woman in New York on charges of espionage is Miss Senta de Wanger, above. She is expected to give valuable evidence for the U.S. government. Reported to be a member of a once wealthy German family of the old German regime, she owned a liquor store near the army flying field at Hempstead, L. I. See trial story on page 2.

VANCOUVERITE HAS HORSE IN LOTTERY

Thomas Goode Draws Queen's Shilling in Irish Hospitals Sweep

VANCOUVER (CP)—Thomas Goode, 52-year-old secretary of the Army and Navy Association in South Vancouver, said today he and 11 fellow members of the association held ticket DP76602 on Queen's Shilling, running in the Cesarewitch at Newmarket next Wednesday. The nom de plume is "Chicken Feed."

"Well, that's not a bad horse and maybe we'll win that first prize," Goode told interviewers.

Goode is married and has two daughters and three sons, the youngest 17.

Queen's Shilling is a 28 to 1 shot in the betting odds. If the horse wins, Goode stands to receive $150,000; and he will get $75,000 for second place and $50,000 for third. Even if Queen's Shilling fails to place among the top three, Goode wins $2,185.

M. G. Martin Dies At St. Johns, Nfld.

ST. JOHNS, Nfld. (CP)—M. G. Martin, 70, managing director of the St. Johns Evening Telegram and one of the colony's most prominent journalists, died suddenly early today. He had been in poor health for some time, but on Wednesday evening he was able to attend the Telegram's annual staff reunion. Yesterday he was in his office as usual.

Washington Fires Spread

INDEX, Wash. (AP)—Logging camps were closed, others prepared for evacuation and several communities were endangered today by spreading forest fires which already had claimed one life and destroyed an estimated 3,500,000 feet of logs and down timber.

Firefighters returning to Sultan after hours of battling fires along the Stevens Highway, estimated 2,300 acres already had been burned.

The fire was out of control in three sectors; flames leaped the north fork of the Skykomish River and started burning in Salmon Creek Canyon; a fire along Salmon Creek burned into new timber, and a third blaze, mostly brush but covering an area estimated at two square miles between Index and Gold Bar, raced out of control.

The latter blaze was fanned by a strong east wind, which carried embers into the town of Gold Bar.

An estimated 300 men were fighting the fires.

Carl Chaffee, 32, who saved himself from burning to death in a fire in Bear Creek Canyon by burying himself in mud, said he was in the mud with his face down for five hours. His companion, William Ragan, 35, was burned to death.

Canadians Lucky In Cesarewitch Irish Sweep Draw

Starters' Tickets Come to 30 and Non-starters to 47

First Prizes $150,000

DUBLIN (CP)—As the stream of varying fortune pouring from the Irish Hospitals Sweepstakes' whirling drum was halted at noon recess today, 30 Canadians had drawn tickets on horses running in the Cesarewitch at Newmarket next Wednesday—and chances of winning as much as $150,000.

Forty-seven others had drawn tickets on nonstarters which carry prizes of $2,187.

Three Canadians held tickets on Snake Lightning, fourth favorite, which would bring them $150,000 each if the horse should win, and 26 others drew chances of runners ranging in the betting from 22 to 1 to 100 to 1.

DRAWS FAVORITE

One Canadian ticketholder, using the nom de plume "Triplets," drew a ticket on Dubonnet, 10 to 1 favorite.

There were chances that other Canadians yet might draw tickets on favored horses, as the spinning drum continued to deal out lucky tickets.

A Canadian using the name "We Two," drew a ticket on Snipewood, a 100-to-7 shot.

Three Canadians drew tickets on Snake Lightning, a 15 to 1 chance. The ticketholders used the noms de plume "Dishwater" and "Peggy O'Shea" and "Butch."

The prize fund was announced as £1,405,630 ($7,026,500). Total receipts were put at £2,446,481.

The prize fund was divided into 14 units of £100,000 each and 14 persons holding tickets on the winning horse will receive £30,000 ($150,000) each, 14 with tickets on the second horse £15,000 each and 14 with tickets on the third horse £10,000 each.

EACH GET £437

Drawers of tickets on each one of 83 horses originally accepted for the race will receive about £437 ($2,187) each. Of those originally accepted, 34 horses were officially listed as probable starters. In addition there are 50 cash residuary prizes of £1,006 ($5,030) each which are not dependent on the outcome of the race, and 1,400 consolation prizes of £100 ($500) each.

People in the United States held 25 of the 42 tickets drawn on three of the favorite horses during the morning session.

Americans held exactly half of the 14 tickets drawn on Dubonnet, the favorite. They also held eight on Black Speck and 10 on Snipe Wood.

This is the silver anniversary of the Irish Hospitals' Sweepstakes.

DID A GOOD JOB—After directing the British Columbia Police for the last 20 years Col. J. H. McMullin, above, is retiring.

Provincial Police Head to Retire

Col. J. H. McMullin, Who Remodelled Force, Leaves Office Today

Col. J. H. McMullin, commissioner of the British Columbia provincial police, will be granted six months' leave of absence, starting today, prior to his retirement from the force, Attorney-General Gordon Wismer announced.

It is expected he will be succeeded as head of the force by Assistant Commissioner Thomas W. S. Parsons, although no announcement was made by the Attorney-General on this point.

Mr. Wismer paid high tribute to the service Col. McMullin had rendered the province in building up the provincial force. Under him it was remodeled, put into uniform and has established a reputation as one of Canada's outstanding groups of law officers.

Col. McMullin has been in charge of the provincial police for nearly 20 years. Besides directing the re-equipment of the force he has controlled the development of its highly-mechanized departments, including radio, launch and motor patrols.

At one time a cavalry officer in South Africa, where he served with distinction, Col. McMullin first came to British Columbia in the 90's, went to South Africa, then returned afterwards to join the provincial police. He was government agent at Fernie for five years, made a police inspector in 1909 then in 1910 he left the police again and was government agent at Prince Rupert and subsequently margarine.

During the Great War he took an active part in recruiting, and then was brought to Victoria to take charge of the police. He is now 65.

MILL BAY FERRY WILL DISCONTINUE

Lack of Business Forces Cancellation Of Charter

The Mill Bay ferry, which has carried many thousands of Victorians and tourists across the Saanich Arm, will cease operation next Monday, it was announced today by Hon. F. M. MacPherson, Minister of Public Works.

Improvements to the Malahat Drive which have made travel over it fast and safe are responsible.

The minister said the Cascade Freight and Towing Co. Ltd., find that in view of the increased travel over the Malahat they cannot operate profitably and have asked to have their charter canceled.

Mr. MacPherson said that viewing it from all sides and considering the lack of traffic for the ferry it was considered only just and proper the service be discontinued, which will be done on Monday.

Movie Actress Falls to Death

Dorothy Hale Killed in Plunge From New York Hotel Window

NEW YORK (AP)—Dorothy Hale, motion picture actress, plunged to her death early today from a window of her 16th floor room in the Hampshire House, exclusive hotel overlooking Central Park.

Mrs. Hale, who a few years ago was described by a Hollywood producer as a "great movie find," was the widow of Gardner Hale of Chicago, who was killed in 1931 when his automobile went over a 500-foot cliff in California.

Detective James Leech, who made a preliminary investigation, said the 33-year-old actress may have fallen from the window when she attempted to open it shortly after she had returned to her room at 6:20 a.m.

The victim's body was clad in a black dinner dress with gold ornaments. A corsage of tea roses hung to her bosom.

NOTES STUDIED

A note was found on the door of Mrs. Hale's room, apparently addressed to a maid. It read:

"Mary: Do not disturb today."

Detective Leech said he also found an unfinished note in the room addressed to John Vincent, New York attorney. Its contents were not divulged.

Margaret Case of Vogue Magazine, one of her nearest friends, said she was with Mrs. Hale until 7 o'clock last night and she appeared gay and happy and gave not the slightest indication that anything might be troubling her.

Vincent said Mrs. Hale, had been subject to a recurring illness.

NOT ENGAGED

Reports that Mrs. Hale had become engaged to Harry L. Hopkins, Works Progress Administration director and one of the closest intimates of President Roosevelt, was denied last summer.

No Announcement By Oil Officials

Government's Gas Order Declared of Far-reaching Importance

VANCOUVER (CP)—Representatives of oil companies doing business in British Columbia declined comment "at this juncture" on the announcement of the government's reduction in gasoline prices.

"In view of the complicated nature of our business and the far-reaching importance of the government's action it would be impossible to make an intelligent statement in behalf of the industry at this time," said A. E. Halverson, vice-president in charge of western sales, Imperial Oil, Ltd., this morning.

Vancouver oil company officials were studying the executive order giving effect to the Coal and Petroleum Board's price schedule this afternoon. It was pointed out that it would be necessary to examine the schedule of zone rates in their relationship to transportation and other charges, and this would require considerable time.

Representatives of the oil and gasoline distributing companies in Victoria said today they had received no word how much of the cut in price of gas ordered by the government would be absorbed by the companies.

Retailers in Victoria insisted that they must retain their 5c spread between wholesale and retail prices, but with a 3c reduction in the total gas price ordered many of them believed the oil companies would insist they take at least 1c less reduction.

If this is done it would make the wholesale price of gas in Victoria 14c, the government tax 7c, retailers' spread 4c, total 25c a gallon.

Letter Gives Hints to Spies

Stated Written By German Espionage Head;
Trial in New York

By MARY E. PLUMMER
Associated Press Staff Writer
NEW YORK—A cryptically worded letter signed "N. Spielmann," the purported alias of the head of the German secret service, was disclosed today as a sort of beginner's manual on "how to become a good spy."

The letter, made public by Assistant U.S. Attorney Lester C. Dunigan in connection with the trial of three alleged Nazi spies in federal court, gave "little hints" on "European business procedure."

Addressed to Guenther Gustav Rummich, 32, former U.S. army sergeant, who has confessed his guilt in the spy plot and testified for the government, the letter referred to a sum of $300—the price Rummich testified he had asked for carrying out a plot to forge President Roosevelt's signature on bogus White House stationery to gain possession of secret plans for the U.S. navy aircraft carriers Yorktown and Enterprise.

TEXT OF LETTER

"Dear friend," it began. "In your favor, I must call your attention to a few business mistakes."

"You must above all things keep strictly separate the representatives of the various firms. There exists in Europe a certain amount of business discretion because one firm will never tell the other what or where it has purchased. For this reason, you must also accept this method, because whatever I purchase for my firm does not necessarily concern any other firm."

"Only I or my representative, Jenni is responsible for these matters."

(Fraulein Johanna ("Jenni") Hofmann, 26, red-haired alleged "payoff" agent and courier for the spy ring, is one of the three persons on trial. She was a beautician on the German liner Europa.)

"For this reason," the letter continued, "I beg you never to communicate to any other firm anything regarding our business connections, as to what I wish or what I purchase. Also, never tell what you have sold me and what I have taken with me."

"...also you must never state a fixed price because this might lead to many misunderstandings. I shall always name to you a price whatever the merchandise is worth to me, and you can then decide whether you will be able to deliver the merchandise at this price."

In the dramatic climax of yesterday's session, the prosecution read a purported confession by Miss Hofmann, which quoted her as admitting she had helped steal United States military secrets because "I believed it was my duty to my Fatherland."

Great Losses in Storm in Japan

Typhoon Passes to Northeast After Killing
226 Persons

TOKIO (CP-Havas)—Train services were disrupted, liner sailings cancelled and 23,000 houses in Tokio flooded as result of a typhoon which struck eastern Japan, including Tokio and Yokohama, early Friday.

(Reuters news agency reported 226 persons were killed and 590 injured. It said thousands of homes collapsed and washed away in floods in the Kagoshima district of Kyushu, southernmost main island of Japan, then struck the Tokio and Yokohama district. An estimated 35,000 were said to have been left homeless.)

The 6,000-ton British freighter Hatterlock broke her mooring chains and drifted ashore at Tsurum, near Tokio, but her crew was believed safe.

The Japanese freighter Toten Maru also snapped her moorings and grounded. Her crew also was believed safe.

The unseasonable storm which lashed waters overlaid along the coastal reaches of Japan in the Tokio-Yokohama district and elsewhere left thousands of trees uprooted and Tokio's communications and transportation partly paralyzed.

Tens of thousands of workers were unable to reach places of employment in the capital and most of the schools were closed. All sailings from Yokohama were suspended.

VESSELS DELAYED

Seven passenger ships scheduled to arrive at Yokohama Friday morning failed to dock.

Reports from the Kagoshima district of Kyushu, southwesternmost main island of Japan, said the area was devastated and 2,368 houses had been washed away.

About 20 fishing boats were missing off Choshi in Chibi prefecture.

The weather improved shortly after noon and the sun shone again on a vista of wreckage. The storm passed from Japan northeastward.

Czechs Not to Mark Holiday

Celebration Cancelled; Aid for Jewish Refugees Between Lines

PRAGUE (AP)—The Czechoslovak government today decreed cancellation of Czechoslovakia's 20th birthday party scheduled for next Friday.

The cabinet advised the people to "spend the day in the work of rebuilding the republic," instead of celebrating as in previous years.

The War Ministry in the meantime ordered immediate relief sent to three groups of Jewish refugees living in the fields near Breclav.

October 28 commemorates the bloodless revolution when the Czechs removed the old Austrian administration without resistance after the Vienna government had accepted President Woodrow Wilson's peace terms.

The War Ministry acted with the Czechoslovak Red Cross today in ordering relief for Jewish refugees.

The 204 refugees, Czechoslovaks said, were forced to leave their homes when the German army of occupation took over Breclav, now the German city of Lundenberg, more than 10 days ago. Since then they have been without shelter in a no man's land between German and Czechoslovak territory.

Official action was delayed until the arrival here last night of a woman Red Cross representative who presented a first-hand account of the situation.

SEIZURE ORDER ON DOUKHOBORS

EDMONTON (CP)—An order permitting the National Trust Company Limited to take possession of chattel properties of the Christian Community of Universal Brotherhood of Alberta Limited was granted by Mr. Justice S. J. Shepherd today.

The trust company had won a judgment for $160,000 and interest still owing on loan of $350,000 made to the Doukhobor settlement at Cowley in the Lethbridge district in 1925. A receiver had been appointed.

The order was made today after the judge had received an affidavit from George H. Steer, K.C., that the various tenants of the settlement were selling the chattels.

The settlement was founded by Peter Verigin in 1922 and now has 700 members.

NEW CANADA AND U.S. LINKS SEEN

Hearst's New York
Daily Mirror Says Nations
Drawing Nearer

NEW YORK (CP)—In an editorial titled "Canada and America Hear Wedding Bells" William Randolph Hearst's New York Daily Mirror today commented on a magazine article predicting the eventual Anschluss of the two countries.

The editorial agreed with the writer of the Mercury Magazine article that strains in the wind indicate Canada and the United States steadily are drawing closer together.

It called attention to the fact Prime Minister King did not pledge publicly the Dominion would go to Great Britain's aid during the recent Czech-German crisis.

The Mirror's editorial referred to the warm reception given Toronto-born Raymond Massey in the title role of the current Broadway hit, "Abel Lincoln in Illinois," and reminded its readers that Robert Sherwood, writer of the play, crossed the border to join the Canadian Black Watch during the Great War.

"Canadians and Americans fight, think and act alike," it commented.

As other indications that "America's best 'good neighbor' is Canada," The Mirror called attention to:

President Roosevelt's pledge at Kingston, Ont., last summer that the United States would "not stand idly by" if the Dominion were invaded.

Unconfirmed reports crop up from time to time that Canada may join the Pan-American Union "and thus tighten its links to this hemisphere."

Refugees Crowd Roads at Canton

HONGKONG (AP)—Japanese troops Friday afternoon entered Canton, south China metropolis and objective of a fast moving offensive that started more than 100 miles away October 12.

An official source reported "utter confusion" reigned in Canton, vital supply centre for Chinese troops in central China, as the invaders pierced the city's first defenses.

Government officials fled to Yungyun, 92 miles north of Canton.

As the invaders approached, the Cantonese had tried furiously to dig trenches and make machine-gun emplacements at strategic centres, while hundreds of thousands of inhabitants fled in all directions, leaving a small fraction of the population behind.

Conflicting reports had obscured the real progress of the well-equipped Japanese columns, but apparently Chinese resistance was weak during the invaders' advance from Bias Bay.

BIG RETREAT

A Japanese spokesman said aerial observation showed the Chinese were retreating in a long line north of Canton.

In Canton, only one house in 10 was found tenanted. Most shops were closed. Streets were empty. Roads from the city were crowded by a strange procession of carts, bicycles, jinrikishas and trucks piled high with refugees' belongings.

The international settlement, Shameen Island, resembled a small fortress with sandbags everywhere.

The Japanese unit which entered the city encountered little resistance in the 10 days' fighting overland from Bias Bay. The Japanese said they had lost only 40 killed and 100 wounded at Walchow, where the heaviest fighting occurred, while Chinese casualties were estimated at 1,400 at Walchow.

It was indicated part of the Japanese force was branching off to the right from the Tsengshin sector in a wide encircling movement aimed at Tsungfa and the vital Canton railway about 50 miles north of Canton. The campaign might start a general drive northwestward up the railway, toward Hankow, provisional capital and objective of the months-old central China offensive.

A dispatch from Canton said the entrance of Japanese troops into the city had come as a complete surprise.

It seemed either that the strong, mechanized Japanese force cleverly had sidestepped Chinese defenses or that the Chinese had decided not to oppose their mechanically superior but numerically inferior force.

There had been strong indications that China's Kwangtung forces would wage a last ditch battle for the city.

Trenches had been dug and barricades thrown up in the Canton streets.

Report Given on Arms Debates

OTTAWA (CP)—Lieut.-Col. George Drew, K.C., of Toronto, author of the article in Maclean's Magazine which brought on the Bren gun inquiry, obtained permission at the opening of today's session of the hearing to explain the set-up of the Conference of Defence Associations.

He said it represented all officers in the various branches of the service and its resolutions reflected the views of all the troops of Canada. Yesterday he had read resolutions of the conference favoring government manufacture of small arms.

Resuming the witness stand, Hon. Ian Mackenzie, Minister of Defence, said the conference was entirely voluntary and while he and the department valued its recommendations highly and gave the utmost consideration to them, the determination of policy was solely a matter for the government.

Questioned by Hon. J. L. Ralston, K.C., commission counsel, Mr. Mackenzie said the "ammunition group" of plants for the supply of ammunition had been partly completed. At present cartridge cases and bullets were being manufactured in the Dominion arsenal at Quebec and the cartridges were filled in new buildings at Valcartier, Que.

COST $5,500,000

Mr. Mackenzie said the Lindsay, Ont., arsenal could not have been used for small arms manufacture until the shell making plant at Quebec and filling plants at Valcartier had been completed. Lowest estimate for completing that work was $5,500,000.

"I have always pressed for development of Lindsay and I still do," the minister said.

Col. Ralston produced minutes of meetings of the Defence Council consisting of senior officers of the department with the minister as chairman.

On October 28, 1936, the council discussed supplies of small arms and ammunition and Major-General E. C. Ashton, chief of the general staff, Rear-Admiral F. W. Nelles, chief of the naval staff, Air Commodore G. M. Croll, senior air officer, Col. R. D. Orde, Judge Advocate-General, believed the government should operate its own arsenals for small arms and other supplies, including airplane engines. They agreed it would be necessary to use civil factories to meet present requirements and in case of emergency.

On the other hand, the deputy minister, Gen. LaFleche, and the master-general of the ordnance, General A. C. Caldwell, did not favor government factories beyond those already in operation because of the cost and delay involved.

BREN MENTIONED

The Master-General of the Ordnance said at the conference that from two to three and a half years would be required to complete the ammunition plant at Valcartier. He said the Bren gun was being investigated and reports would later be submitted on it.

Gen. LaFleche stated manufacture in civilian factories would be less expensive and more expeditious than at Valcartier.

Mr. Mackenzie asked the meeting how long it would take to equip a plant to make small arms at Lindsay, and Gen. Ashton said the information was not available. If Valcartier proposals were proceeded with Lindsay would not be required.

At a meeting on July 12, 1937, Gen. LaFleche reported Czechoslovak patentees of the Bren gun were pleased with the prospect of manufacturing in Canada, and would place no obstacle in the way of granting a license to a Canadian company.

Mr. Mackenzie told of a discussion and said decision was reached by the cabinet when estimates were under consideration. It was decided to postpone the Valcartier plant project for the time being because of financial stringency. There was no change of policy.

British, With Jerusalem Quiet, Expect to Move Against Arabs

JERUSALEM (AP)—British military authorities prepared today to strike in other parts of Palestine in continuation of the campaign against rebellious Arabs.

The next scene of operations of the steel-helmeted soldiers who restored comparative order to the old quarter of Jerusalem was not disclosed, but the rebel-infested Bethlehem area was considered a likely objective.

Sporadic sniping continued in Jerusalem last night, and troops still surrounded the mosque of Omar, where many Arabs were believed to be entrenched.

VANCOUVER (CP)—G. P. Bainbridge, Vancouver philatelist, today suggested that an "international" postage stamp, available for use in both Canada and the United States, might be issued to commemorate next year's visit of King George and Queen Elizabeth to North America.

"My idea is a 3-cent stamp, the most widely used denomination, carrying portraits of both of the King and Queen and of President Roosevelt," Mr. Bainbridge said. The King and Queen will arrive in Canada next spring. It has been suggested they may enter the United States for a brief visit.

Logging Congress Names New Leaders

TACOMA (AP)—Gordon Manary of the Pacific Lumber Company, Scotia, Cal., last night was elected president of the Pacific Northwest Logging Congress at a meeting of the board of directors. The organization held its 29th annual convention here.

R. B. Brown, of the B. and K. Logging Company Ltd. of Vancouver, B.C., was elected vice-president; A. A. Lausmann, of the Squaw Mountain Logging Company, Portland, Ore., was named treasurer, and A. Whisnant of Portland was re-elected secretary, a post he has held for 13 years.

The only other official act of the directors was the awarding of the 1939 congress to Portland, with dates to be set later.

Anglo-U.S. Trade Talks Stalled

Britain Studies
American Request for Further Concessions

WASHINGTON (CP)—Great Britain was understood to have under consideration today a United States request for further concessions on certain American products before negotiations leading to a trade agreement can be continued.

Reliable quarters in Washington stated United States negotiators felt further talks would serve no useful purpose unless London saw its way clear to lower its tariff barriers against these products.

Products causing the trouble were said to be automobiles, hams, lard and bacon. The automobile discussion centred on application to cars of 20 horsepower or more the 10 per cent tariff reduction the British were willing to make on cars of 25 horsepower or more.

Negotiations leading to trade agreements between the United States and the United Kingdom, Newfoundland and certain of the colonies have been under way for six months. They have been carried on simultaneously with talks looking to a new reciprocal trade agreement between the United States and Canada.

In Ottawa it was felt difficulties encountered in the Anglo-American negotiations might delay signing of the Canada-United States pact because the two treaties are complementary in many respects.

Trade officials professed surprise today at reports from the United States that a serious hitch had developed in the Anglo-American trade talks at Washington.

"We know nothing of a serious hitch," said a spokesman. "In negotiations of this magnitude proposals are bound from time to time to be made by one side and refused by the other, but negotiations are continuing."

In unofficial circles, however, it is widely believed the negotiations have struck a major snag. These sources ascribe the difficulties to U.S. demands for concessions which would have drastic effect on the British home market.

Colebourne Jury Disagrees After Being Out 3 Hours

Murder Hearing October 31Many Towns in China BurnedJapanese in North Fire Villages in Effort To Oust Guerrillas

WEST HOPEH, North China (AP)—Flaming Chinese villages are almost a daily sight near the railways of North China, where the Japanese army is described by guerrillas as showing remarkable speed with the torch. Guerrillas say the Japanese have adopted their own "scorched earth" policy in an effort to burn guerrillas out of their bases.

A small column of Japanese troops can fire an entire village in half an hour by use of special chemicals and retreat before guerrillas arrive, the latter say. At Duping, 1,500 Japanese fired 700 houses in three hours. They did their work so thoroughly that irregulars were unable to stop the flames.

On a three weeks' trip through guerrilla territory a correspondent noted that five walled towns and 380 villages had been set on fire. There was evidence that 2,600 civilians had been killed in the first six months of the year and more than 70,000 persons made homeless.

Provocation for the Japanese torch is guerrilla pressure on the railways. Guerrillas pull up rails, burn ties, kill Japanese station guards and retreat when the Japanese attempt to fight them.

Gen. Chen Mai-yuan, commander-in-chief of the guerrillas, said the loyalty of the farmers to the guerrillas had increased at every sacking.

Monks Sent to Jail at Salzburg

SALZBURG, Germany (AP)—Sixteen Franciscan monks were sentenced yesterday to jail terms ranging from 10 days to one month on charges of "incitement to hatred" and "malicious damage to property."

The charges were brought against them after the monks were alleged to have hurled furnishings from third-floor cells of their monastery in protest against an ejection order.

The monastery buildings is state property, and notice was served on the Franciscan order to evacuate the third floor, required for Gestapo, secret police, offices.

Life Sentence

UPTONGREY, Eng. (CP)—Charged with cruelty to a dog, a 76-year-old woman was debarred from keeping a dog for 10 years. "I shall be dead by then," she said. "That is why we made it so long," replied the judge.

The four-day Assize Court trial of Vera Colebourne, charged with the murder of her husband, Sidney William Colebourne, at their Bowker Avenue bungalow April 1 last, ended yesterday evening without a verdict.

Out 3 hours and 20 minutes, the jury, composed entirely of men, returned at 6.25 to report disagreement.

Mr. Justice D. A. McDonald, presiding over the trial, dismissed the jury, ordered the accused held in custody until October 31 and instructed the sheriff to call extra talesmen to make up a jury for another trial.

Mrs. Colebourne, on whom the strain of the preceding four days had told heavily, fainted as Foreman P. T. Stern announced the disagreement. She was carried from the courtroom by provincial police officers.

The jury retired at 3.05 at the completion of the judge's charge and returned at 5.32 to request a stenographic report of the accused's testimony dealing definitely with the discharge of the bullet which killed Colebourne. R. C. Lowe, defence counsel, provided the transcript when Mr. Justice McDonald stated his had been marked and might be prejudicial to the accused.

He was sure the jury had done its best, Mr. Justice McDonald stated, as he gave the order for dismissal.

TWO VERDICTS ONLY

In his charge, the justice expressed agreement with defence counsel that the case, on the evidence, precluded a verdict of manslaughter. It called for one of murder or acquittal, he said.

He summarized the evidence and read a transcript of that section of Mrs. Colebourne's testimony dealing directly with the discharge of the gun and events immediately surrounding it.

If the jury were to eliminate counsel's addresses and other evidence and try her on her own testimony alone, what, he asked, would its verdict be?

Earlier Mr. Justice McDonald had stated that if the jury accepted her evidence it would be up to its members to acquit the accused.

The usual explanations of law in respect to reasonable doubt and the onus on the Crown to prove its case by disclosing facts inconsistent with any other rational conclusion than guilt, were given.

NO MANSLAUGHTER
GROUNDS

He impressed the jury with its obligation to determine the weight of Mrs. Colebourne's testimony and then read the extract from her statement in court. Nothing, he said, was spared to show the deceased was a bad man. He referred to allegations of unnatural relations demanded by the deceased and stated that if the accused had, at that point, declared she had shot Colebourne in the heat of passion over such provocation, the way would have been left open for a manslaughter verdict. The defence had not taken that course, he said. There was no more excuse to shoot a bad man than a good man, he added. Dealing with her evidence to the effect that she had thrown a paint can from the front porch to the sidewalk, he stated it had struck him such an action would create considerable noise.

At the completion of his quotations from the transcript he said he had no remarks to make on the evidence she had submitted.

Large Reservoir
Plan in Alberta

REGINA (CP)—Third project of its kind so far undertaken by the prairie farm rehabilitation administration, in which waste water from existing irrigation developments is reclaimed for use in supplementary developments, tenders will be called in a few days for the $20,000 Horsefly Lake project south of Taber, Alta., according to an announcement here.

The project involves construction of 10 miles of canals and ditches to divert waste water from the Taber Irrigation District into Horsefly Lake and Forty-mile Coulee, to supply water to the municipal districts of Bow Island and Forty-mile Coulee.

Normal waste water from the irrigation district totals about 3,000-acre feet a year. Last summer's rains swelled the waste to 5,000-acre feet. This excess water so far has been dumped into Old Man River, a tributary of the South Saskatchewan River.

Horsefly Lake, now nearly dry, will be converted into a reservoir holding 6,000-acre feet of water. The Taber Irrigation District now comprises about 23,000 acres and is one of the most successful in Alberta.

RESERVE DECISION
IN C.P.R. APPEAL

Argument was completed yesterday in the appeal of the Canadian Pacific Railway against a judgment awarding damages of $12,000 to Etta Fanny Robinson and four children for the death of the husband and father, killed when struck by a flat car in New Westminster on November, 1936. The Court of Appeal reserved judgment on the case on which it had asked further argument in respect to an ambiguous clause at the close of the jury verdict in the trial court.

Evidence in the court below was to the effect that the deceased, George Spencer Robinson, had been walking across tracks of the company on the evening in question and had been struck by a shunted flat car.

The jury found the company negligent in not having a man and a light or a man or a light on the car to give warning. The defendant claimed the deceased had trespassed on the tracks.

Since the jury held Robinson 20 per cent responsible for the accident, the original award of $15,000, including $10,000 to the widow and $5,000 to the children, was reduced to $12,000.

J. E. McMullen, K.C., appeared for the appellant and H. J. Sullivan, K.C., for the respondent.

NOT DISCOURAGED
BY CHINA EVENTSBut Suffering and Need of Help Great,
Says Joe Hope

"We should not be too discouraged by recent events in southern China; it must be remembered that the invader is very far from his base of supplies. Of course, there is greatly increased suffering, and the need for any help we can give is appallingly urgent," said Joe Hope in an address before the Canadian Friends of the Chinese people at the Business and Professional Women's Club rooms, View Street, yesterday evening.

Mr. Hope outlined the conditions prevailing in the great hinterland of middle China, stressing the great opportunity for the younger university-trained people to know more of the ancient culture and ways of the old China, now that the necessity for everyone to work for a common cause was so great.

Final arrangements were completed for the forthcoming visit of the "Chinese Cornelia Otis Skinner," Miss Soo Yong, who will give an entertainment at the Empire Theatre on the evening of Thursday, October 27. Proceeds from this affair will be used to further the work of the Canadian Friends of the Chinese People in purchasing medical supplies for a brave, unfortunate people, struggling against unwarranted aggression.

Limits for Doctors
Coming to Canada

OTTAWA (CP)—The Ottawa district council of the Ontario Medical Association yesterday passed a resolution opposing unrestricted absorption into the Canadian medical profession of refugee doctors from European countries.

The resolution said: "That while this council recognizes its duty to refugees and victims of political persecution, we should only take in those who will not tax our absorptive capacity and that we are opposed to unrestricted immigration beyond our ability to absorb such doctors."

The council endorsed a motion of the Canadian Medical Association executive which called for a survey of the entire medical profession to obtain detailed information as to its capacities to serve the country in the event of mobilization.

Britain a Fortress

AT THE EAST COAST SEASIDE RESORT of Clacton last night, Sir Samuel Hoare, Home Secretary in the Chamberlain ministry, appealed for Anglo-German co-operation to "fill up the trenches which have been dividing Europe." He followed it up with the promise that Great Britain would speed up its rearmament and turn the United Kingdom into a fortress against air attack. The minister explained that preparations for war were based not on a distrust of Reichsfuehrer Hitler's "peaceful aspirations" but by the fear that a successor to Hitler may not hold the Chancellor's views on the need for amity between Britain and the Reich.

We leave where it stands Sir Samuel's pledge—made on behalf of the government—and the reasons with which he justifies it. It is axiomatic that "without friendly relations between England and Germany there can be no stable peace in the world." It is a little difficult, however, to reconcile the unbounded satisfaction and gratification with which Prime Minister Chamberlain continues to refer to the "Peace of Munich" and to the Anglo-German pledge to settle all future disputes between the two countries, without recourse to armed force, with the Home Secretary's definite announcement of the conversion of the United Kingdom into a fortress, coupled as it was with an equally plain statement that plans soon would be announced to make the civilian "home front as ready for action as any fighting service."

If the British Government really believes Reichsfuehrer Hitler was sincere when he and Mr. Chamberlain pledged their respective countries to abstain from fighting one another in the future, the elaborate plans for defence of which the Home Secretary spoke last night must have some other nation in mind. Or is it now plain that ambitious Adolf is just solidifying the objectives already gained—without fighting—so that he will be that much stronger when he consults his "Mein Kampf" timetable again?

Dr. Manion's Visit

VICTORIA CORDIALLY WELCOMED Hon. R. J. Manion, leader of the National Conservative Party of Canada, for an hour or so yesterday. It was unfortunate that pressure of time and other business prevented him from remaining in the city for a longer period. His short stay, however, enabled him to have an intimate chat with his active supporters in this community and to inject the invigorating air and bright sunshine of this part of British Columbia. He is by no means a stranger hereabouts; but he came to us yesterday for the first time as the chief of one of the two great political parties of this Dominion.

With the prospect of a federal general election probably some time next year we may assume it will not be very long before Dr. Manion makes his bow to the general public of Victoria and district in the role of political suppliant. None better than he realizes the importance of the duties which his high office involves; none better than he recognizes the difficulties of the task of weaning the Canadian people away from their overwhelming reaffirmation of political faith to which the general election of 1935 bore witness. He will find, however, that Victorians in particular and Vancouver Islanders in general will applaud every contribution he may make which has for its object the well-being of the masses of the people of this great Dominion.

We may disagree with some of Dr. Manion's political formulas. His views and ours may conflict as they are brought to bear on the vital public questions of the day. But he may rest assured that we share to the full his solicitude for the solid progress of our country, his determination to fight for the maintenance of a spirit of tolerance, and his brand of Canadianism which makes for a happy and contented people.

Anti-partition Pot Boils

IRELAND'S NORTHERN COUNCIL FOR Unity is busily sorting out its argument in support of Eire's abolition of partition and the early reunion of Erin's Isle under the constitution already operative in the former Irish Free State. At its recent meeting of Nationalist elements from Down and Armagh the new organization launched its program and blessed it with the announcement that now Prime Minister Chamberlain has settled the question of the Sudeten Germans he might well turn to what the Council described as "a worse problem at his own back door." The demand for a settlement of Ireland's special minority problem took the form of a resolution protesting against partition:

"Because it violated Ireland's national rights, mutilated the province of Ulster, created dissension and ill-will among citizens of different religious views, had a crippling effect on agriculture and trade, imposed the crushing task of maintaining two governments, and was an act passed by the British Parliament for which no Irish representative voted." The following was an addition to the foregoing: "We believe that the Constitution of Ireland enacted on July 1, 1937, provides a basis for the unity of our country and for the reign of social justice therein, and we urge all sections of our race to direct their energies towards bringing about its immediate and effective application to all Ireland."

Editorial opinion supporting the claim of the Nationalists would appear to be epitomized in this comment from the Irish Independent (Dublin): "Here is a nation that was old before Czechoslovakia was invented, a nation whose unity of tradition, culture and race is established by tests which no state in Europe could stand. It is a country whose natural boundaries are outlined by Nature with a certainty which only the most brazen and cynical of opportunists could ignore. Yet, without the assent of even 1 per cent of the people or their representatives, Ireland was mutilated. The English Parliament forced upon this country an unnatural boundary for which neither race nor religion, neither tradition nor trade could offer a scintilla of excuse. As long as that outrage on an ancient race is maintained so long will Irishmen demand that the wrong be righted. Ireland is entitled to at least the same measure of justice as the Germans, the Hungarians and the Poles. British statesmen cannot have one standard of international morality for Central Europe and another for Ireland."

On this basis anti-partitionists suggest to the British Prime Minister and his colleagues that here is an opportunity to undo what Mr. de Valera's government considers is a great wrong—a wrong for which Mr. Chamberlain's predecessors must accept responsibility, and for which the present and future British administrations will be held answerable by the majority of the Irish people every day the present boundaries endure.

But Mr. Chamberlain likewise may well inquire what he is to do as long as Ulster and the Ulster Parliament steadfastly refuse to have anything to do with the Constitution enacted more than a year ago. Admittedly, when Eire tells him he showed Czechoslovakia a way out of her dilemma, implying that he could apply the same formula to Ulster, he is more or less hoist with his own petard—"on the spot," as it were. It is not for us, however, to try to suggest how he will circumvent the adage that what is sauce for the goose is also sauce for the gander.

Threats As Bonds

ONE ASPECT OF PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT's appeal for European peace passed almost unnoticed in the stress and strain of the moment. Yet it may well prove more important to the anti-Fascist trend in the Americas than any other.

It is this: Practically every Latin-American country lined up solidly behind Roosevelt, immediately sending similar appeals to Hitler. Only a few hours after news of Roosevelt's appeal reached Buenos Aires, President Ortiz cabled a similar appeal to Hitler and Benes. Within 24 hours, practically all South American countries had followed suit.

This was, so far as can be learned, spontaneous. But following it, talk is being revived in all South American countries about the desirability of closer union of the Americas to protect the governments of the western world against Fascist aggression.

Loose Comment

ONE OF THE PROLIFIC CONTRIBUTORS to the correspondence columns of this newspaper informs our readers that "Canada is sending unending cargoes of war material across the Pacific to the gangster war-lords at Yokohama."

For the information of those of our readers who may think from the above statement that this country of 11,000,000 peace-loving Canadians is aiding and abetting the rape of China by supplying one of the three partners of the Rome-Berlin-Tokyo axis with war materials in huge quantities, we may quote from the Dominion Bureau of Statistics at Ottawa. Its official trade return for the last fiscal year shows the value of Canada's sales of all commodities—and they cover a wide range—to Japan as $21,977,112 compared with the previous fiscal year of $23,083,392, or a decline during the year's bitter fighting between the two Oriental nations of more than $1,000,000.

We welcome, of course, expressions of opinion on as many subjects as possible. But one of our first duties is to point out inaccuracies or glittering generalities which often are more or less dangerous in their implication. Our correspondent's charge that Canada is sending "unending cargoes of war material across the Pacific to gangster war-lords at Yokohama" should at least be considered in conjunction with the official records.

CANADA AND PALESTINE

From Ottawa Citizen

Canada is certainly in no position to comment critically on British policy in Palestine. There should be room in this country for millions of productive workers. There is much popular sentiment in Canada against the treatment of Jews in Germany. There has also been much sentimental concern over Czechoslovakia's loss of territory. It would be timely evidence of the genuineness of this Canadian sentiment to make it possible for more of the exiled and persecuted people to find sanctuary in Canada, where the natural resources are more than sufficient to support 20,000,000 people.

The chronic state of 1,000,000 Canadian people on the dole is no excuse for failure to make better use of nature's bountifulness in this great Dominion, although it certainly should begin with the people already settled in Canada.

Loose Ends

By BRUCE HUTCHISON

AMERICAN SCENE

TWO THINGS SMACK you in the eye, when you return to the United States, after a couple of years' absence. First, how unlike them we still are in Canada. Second, how rapidly we are getting like them.

It is all very well to talk about the invisible line at the 49th parallel, but it is a line just the same, and very definite. We aren't quite Americans yet; not we old ones, anyway. Though the way our children take their culture, ideals and attitudes painlessly from south of the line, from the radio and the movies, one wonders how long we shall survive.

In fact, it has reached a stage now where most people here of the female sex are just a pale echo of the United States, but getting less pale all the time; getting more vivid all the time and the prospect is horrifying.

I mean to say, it is really true what you read about these days. The women down there do wear the comic hats which I, in my innocence, had supposed were just a joke in the movies, just a fad among the under-privileged and morose.

The streets of Seattle are crawling with these comic hats, which were invented as a revenge on the whole sex by some madman who had just quarreled with his sweetheart and murdered her. An incredible sight which will amuse people 20 years from now, when they look at current movies and news pictures, much more than our grandmothers' clothes amuse us.

YEARNING

BUT THERE IS MORE than comedy and horrid caricature about the clothing of the American woman, which our women are trying to imitate. There is a certain yearning here among the girls. They are all dressed up now; not just well dressed, not just dressed to go shopping, but dressed up all the time for a party.

It is my considered opinion, after a day of bewilderment in Seattle, that all the women of the United States are going about every day expecting that Mr. Zukor or Mr. Goldwyn or Mr. Capra will see them and rush them off to Hollywood and make movie stars of them.

So no woman in Seattle, however fat, however old and ugly, dares to walk down the street without her best clothes, without her last eyelash made up, lest she meet Mr. Zukor, Mr. Goldwyn or Mr. Capra. Napoleon used to say that every French soldier carried a marshal's baton in his knapsack. Every American woman carries a Hollywood contract in her handbag. Every one of them, as she walks down the street, thinks in her secret heart that she is just as pretty as Myrna Loy and only needs to be discovered.

This dressed-up state, these party manners, are hard on the nerves, hard on the feet, hard, I should think, on the complexion. Also they are often hard on the public. And the whole effect is rather pathetic, rather tragic, and gives to the surface of America a kind of hopeless pretension, a sort of spurious outside. And besides, when the girls dress up to go out and buy six pork chops just as glamorously as when they go to a governor's ball, you get used to glamour and aren't struck by it any more. They wear out their glamour by using it too much, and at the wrong hours, in the morning when they should be in aprons or tweeds. (Local ladies, please note.)

GADGETS

ALWAYS WITH THE realization that we are getting more like them all the time, one has to complain that the Americans have become a nation of gadgeteers. There is such an appalling mass of gadgets and shiny useless junk on sale in some of the shops of Seattle that the mind reels before it, the senses feel confused and faint, and I have seen strong woodmen from Canada come out of these gilded junk shops carrying parcels full of new-fangled can openers, fancy lemon squeezers, cheap razor blades and cut-rate bottles of laxative, simply because they were bewildered like a child at large in a candy shop, like the Vicar of Wakefield's son, who traded the family cow, as you remember, for a gross of green spectacles because he couldn't resist the bargain.

Yes, there is something always deeply tragic about the surface of American life (which we are imitating more and more). There is something terrified and lonely about it. No one but the late Thomas Wolfe really caught the loneliness of it, and he died too young to complete his work.

But you feel it, for example, as you walk through a swell American hotel or shop and see the exaggerated uniforms of the flunkies, the incredible beauty-salon look of the salesladies and clerks, the elevator girl garbed like a duchess and more painted and garnished and curled than Mary Antoinette.

Here is the hard, metallic, glittering surface of modern American civilization, but it is less than a hair's breadth deep. Outside the store or hotel a few miles lies the surface of America, vast and lonely, with poor men tolling over it and women bent with labor, and it is still a rude pioneer untamed land, less than half a century under man's habitation, most of it.

And you have the feeling as you plunge from the tiny, gilded, glittering spot called the city, into the all-encompassing and empty wilderness around, that the city lights, the garish colors, and the poor gilded inhabitants are really running away from their country, from the grim reality of the out-of-doors beyond the pavement. The strength of America, the salvation, is out there. It isn't in the manicure parlor and the beauty salon and under the cluster lights. The same goes for Canada.

DEFINITELY FOR STREET CARS

To the Editor:—In answer to numerous letters re modernized tramcars or buses for Victoria in which my name and advocacy in favor of tramcars is mentioned frequently, permit me to say:

1. I continue to assert that it is foolish for British Columbia, and particularly Victoria, to send our money out of the province for oil motive power and gas buses, when we have water power in abundance. Answering "Petroleum Industries" plaint, would remind them their statement of volume and value covers the whole of British Columbia, whilst we are dealing with the situation in Victoria, and whilst no doubt their turn-over here is considerable, it is probably only one-fourth of what we in Victoria send out of the country for the product in question in which they deal.

2. Unquestionably the existing tramcar equipment requires reconditioning as to track in some places, and substitution of modernized cars for those practically antiquated here, and according to some municipal officials interviewing the B.C. Electric Railway president in Vancouver, the latter was quite reasonable, and was prepared on request to carry on and recondition if requested to do so for another five years. In addition, he informed them they had under consideration and study reduced rates for light and power.

3. An important objection to any increase in gas buses is their generation of carbon monoxide gas and of its deadly effects. Two quite recent deaths are an example. Effects of its presence on our streets can be seen in the blue and green streaks on sidewalks and gutters, after a heavy rain, particularly in vicinity of bus stops. Motorists using the Malahat declare that the discharge from gas buses is most objectionable, and they always try to get ahead of them. In conversation with a bus motorman in Los Angeles this spring, he said General Motors had men there making a study of the best way to overcome it, but had not accomplished anything yet. It was especially bad in cold or wet weather when windows had to be closed.

It is claimed in Paris, France, that carbon monoxide gas is killing the trees, and steps have been taken to overcome it. Mentioning to one of our leading students of tree life that it was claimed the plane tree in London was the best shade tree on the streets there because it shed its bark every year, just as our arbutus does here, the student said he had noticed on our James Island, where explosives are manufactured, developing much obnoxious gas, that trees succumb, but the last to do so was the arbutus, due, he believed, to its capacity for yearly renewal of its bark.

It appears as if Victoria is doomed to be a tourist resort. The most popular of such resorts is Bermuda, where no motors are allowed.

FAREWELL TO A CHIEF

To the Editor:—The death of Chief Syme came to many, as well as to his grief-stricken family, as a great shock, and brought a sense of deep loss. He was always kind and courteous in his manner, ready and willing to help all he could, and in his passing a true friend has been lost by a great number of people. With sincere affection and respect, I say "Farewell, Chief Syme."

AS TO BEATING GERMANY

From Richmond Times-Dispatch
If a European war should break out five or 10 years hence, it is extremely doubtful if Germany could be beaten at all, and she almost certainly could not overcome in less than four or more years.

Better English

1. What is wrong with this sentence? "I wish I was going to be there."
2. What is the correct pronunciation of "dog"?
3. Which one of these words is misspelled? Fareway, fallacy, fillgree.
4. What does the word "implication" mean?
5. What is a word beginning with cont that means "repentance"?

Answers

1. Say, "I wish I were going to be there." 2. Pronounce the o as in loss, not as in of. 3. Fairway. 4. The act of expressing indirectly. "He made no direct accusation, only an implication." 5. Contrition.

Canadians Want Unity

Dr. R. J. Manion, New Conservative Leader, Does Not Believe Confederation Will Break Up

A political leader in Canada cannot always do exactly what he wants to do, Dr. R. J. Manion told his followers here last night, on his first visit to the Pacific coast as head of the Conservative Party. He spoke at a Halloween social party arranged by the Junior Conservatives at party headquarters.

"A leader," said he, "must compromise on some questions. Sometimes when you think I am doing the wrong thing, remember what Cromwell said to some clerics who were critical of him. 'Think it possible,' said Cromwell, 'that you may be mistaken.' Remember that as your leader I have to think from the standpoint of the whole of Canada, and work always to hold the country together."

The antagonisms between various sections of the country, he said, had never been so great as in the last two or three years. Only compromise and understanding could compose these differences.

"Remember, in the first place that there are about 4,000,000 French people in Canada. We must put up with them. And they must put up with us. To hold this country together is not easy, but I believe that 90 per cent of the people want to maintain Confederation and remain part of the British Empire, and I hope that all I say and do will be towards that end."

Rt. Hon. R. B. Bennett, he recalled had predicted that the country might break up. With this Dr. Manion did not agree. He did not believe that Confederation was at all in danger but said conditions for the great masses of the people must be improved.

"I am accused," he added, "of radicalism. I believe in our present political and economic system as much as any man in St. James Street, but we must improve conditions for the people if we are to maintain these very things. I don't think it's good enough when thousands and thousands are unemployed and on relief. If I do get into office it will be my effort to better the conditions of the mass of the people."

Dr. Manion paid tribute to R. L. Maitland, K.C., the new provincial Conservative chieftain.

MONEY CRANKS. Dr. Manion ridiculed the fallacies of "monetary cranks," telling some stories to illustrate the point.

He went on to discuss the subject of tourist trade, with which he familiarized himself when he held the portfolio of Railways and Canals in the Bennett government. Last year, he said, American tourists spent $275,000,000 in Canada, but this country was not doing all it could to attract visitors.

"What you need are good roads, good hotels and courtesies," he said. "We should remain purely Canadian, distinctly Canadian and British. Anything you have, like your smoked salmon, keep it."

He explained that as Canada is a debtor nation tourist expenditures here helped to pay international balances and interest on a debt of some $7,000,000,000.

"It getting bad again," he said, referring to the fact that Canada buys more from the United States than it sells in that market—a condition which, he said, always developed under Liberal Government in Canada.

Touching on the Oriental problem he read the plank in the Conservative platform calling for an end of Oriental immigration. This, he said, needed no comment.

TRADE AGREEMENTS. Dr. Manion traced the history of the Ottawa trade agreements and declared that no part of Canada had benefited from them so much as British Columbia.

If the new Canadian-United States trade treaty affected these present Canadian preferences in Britain, British Columbia would suffer gravely, he said. Declining to discuss the treaty until its terms were known, he expressed the hope that it would not damage the Empire preference system.

Without casting any reflection on the American people, he said they were difficult to trade with and no trade treaties with them had any permanence, certainly not like the permanency of the British market.

OTHER SPEAKERS. W. H. M. Haldane, president of the Victoria Association, in a few remarks, referred to the Halloween decorations which included two cardboard skeletons. "You notice," he said, "the skeletons are hanging on the walls in plain view. The Conservative party has none in its cupboard."

Leslie Osborne, Conservative candidate for the Legislature in Saanich, urged the youth of the country to co-operate with their mature leaders in preparing for future leadership.

F. Montgomery, business manager of Conservative Action, a paper published by the junior Conservatives, appealed for support of the venture.

Dr. J. D. Hunter, M.P.P., said the new party leaders would need the help of a strong and virile organization to revive the fortunes of the party. Referring to Mr. Manion's visit he said if Premier King would come to the coast more often instead of visiting the United States it would be a good thing for everyone.

Howard Green M.P., called Dr. Manion the cheeriest and jolliest man in public life in Canada. But he was taking his responsibilities in serious fashion, showing himself a real statesman.

Mr. Anscomb congratulated the party on its choice of Mr. Maitland as provincial leader at Kamloops.

"He will lead you to victory at the next election," he said.

Warwick Rawson was chairman of the meeting. The entertainment included selections by an instrumental trio, vocal solos by Miss Honor Benson and Miss Catherine Denison, and some novelty turns.

For Broadening Of Trade Beyond British Group

Canada's Delegation To Australia Surprised At Viewpoint

E. J. Tarr, K.C. of Winnipeg, on arrival here aboard the liner Niagara last night from Sydney, said he was surprised to find most delegates to the British Commonwealth Relations Conference were convinced the Ottawa trade agreements had served their major usefulness.

"Most of the delegations expressed the view that the system supported by the Ottawa agreements could not wisely be developed and that greater need was felt by most countries for broadening out of trade beyond the British group of nations," he said. Mr. Tarr is president of the Canadian Institute of International Affairs and was leader of the Canadian delegation to the conference which met from September 3 to 17 in the Lapstone Hotel in the heart of the Blue Mountains, 40 miles from Sydney, N.S.W.

Other Canadian delegates were: Dr. Norman A. M. MacKenzie, professor of international law, University of Toronto; Dr. F. H. Soward, professor of political science, University of Saskatchewan; Dr. G. E. Britnell, professor of economics, McMaster University, Hamilton, Ontario; Dr. Percy E. Corbett, McGill University, Montreal; and Dean William H. Brittain, vice-principal of Macdonald College, McGill University.

WOULD REPEAT. All expressed the opinion the informal discussion of commonwealth problems was an "outstanding success and should be repeated." It was felt that the conference had greatly assisted them to understand each other's problems.

The delegates, said Mr. Tarr, were on common ground in desiring to cement relationships between their respective countries, but differing views were expressed regarding the means which should be adopted.

One school of thought held it could best be realized by encouraging the units of the commonwealth to develop their own national individuality, while others were of the opinion that efforts should be made to bring about closer organizational co-operation.

The majority of delegates from Great Britain and other major units of the British commonwealth felt the Ottawa agreements were "a constructive development toward meeting a special emergency," said Mr. Tarr. "But they were not so sure as far as continued further development of the agreements is concerned," he added.

The general opinion expressed was for "freer trade within the Empire, but not at the expense of freer world trade."

Principal contribution of the conference was that it should help develop an understanding of different conditions in various sections of the commonwealth, said Mr. Tarr.

REPORT SOON.

Publication within a few weeks of a book embodying the conference deliberations will spread knowledge of the different factors by which co-operation of various commonwealth nations can be built up. "For instance, the need for territorial security within the commonwealth is greater in some countries than others," he continued. "Ireland is an outstanding example of this situation, Australia to a lesser degree and Canada still less."

"It is tremendously important that such factors as racial differences, security and economic problems—and their causes—be understood. It was clear at the conference, most delegates felt that because of those factors and others there would be an increase of diversification between the various commonwealth units. If this diversification took place on a basis of mutual understanding, they felt, it would actually make for essential unity in the commonwealth, although not for uniformity."

Major H. C. Cuthbert Holmes, Dr. Harry M. Cassidy and other members of the local branch of the Canadian Institute of International Affairs, met and entertained the delegates on arrival.

Hon. Hugh Wyndham was the only representative of the British group who returned by the Niagara.

Two Orchestra Groups Merge

An organization—the only one of its kind—that has for many years occupied an outstanding position in the musical life of the city, the George Dyke String Orchestra, founded and conducted by Mr. Dyke, has been amalgamated with the Victoria Philharmonic Orchestra Society, under its director, Alfred Prescott. In its many years this string orchestra has maintained world while standards and won success at concert and festival.

It is learned that Mr. Dyke will not altogether lay aside his baton, as he will take part in the Philharmonic's future programs. Those who had intended joining the string orchestra will be now welcomed at the weekly practices of the Orchestral Society on Wednesday evenings in the Arion Club's rehearsal rooms over the Liberal Headquarters, Government Street.

Pope Denounces Nazi Tyranny

Persecution in Germany And Austria Dealt With in Address

VATICAN CITY (AP)—L'Osservatore Romano, Vatican City newspaper, said today Pope Pius had denounced Nazi "persecution" in Germany and Austria with allusions to tyrants of the past.

It said the Pope recalled Julian the Apostate, Nero and the apostle Judas in references which archaeologists, whom he addressed in an audience at Castel Gandolfo yesterday, said they took as meaning Chancellor Hitler.

L'Osservatore, in a summary of the Pope's remarks, noted he spoke of archaeology as dedicated to exhuming monuments and studying "dead texts." Then he added that "not far away quite a different archaeology is being practiced."

"Workers and personages which would better be left in oblivion are being called and recalled on the scene of life and action," the newspaper summarized the Pope's message.

"It is erroneous archaeology and truth which exhumes sinister figures to bring them back into existence and put in operation sinister works."

"He recalled the work of Julian the Apostate with sad, extremely sad, persecutions which, if they were not the most violent and bloodiest, were extremely uncompromising, deceitful and shrewd."

The work has been revived not without informers and apostles of the type and soul of Judas. "So, today, continually and without respite, it happens that on the faithful, on their fate and on their conscience, blame is laid for persecutions which have been noted."

REFERENCE TO CARDINAL

"It is a truly strange thing: strange heights have been reached. Because it must be said that persecution, even of the last of the faithful, of the last son entrusted to the care of Jesus Christ and to His vicar, strikes the Pope as well and also persecutions—this is the true name—together with the paucity of accusations has mounted as far as the sacred purple of a high pastor. The paternal grief could not but be, as these sons well understand, great and profound."

(This allusion was regarded in some quarters as a reference to Nazi charges that Theodor Cardinal Innitzer, Archbishop of Vienna, himself brought on recent Nazi raids on his palace.)

Continuing its summary of the Pope's address, delivered in Italian, L'Osservatore added:

"But the sons will take inspiration from the father's sentiments." His Holiness continued.

"The Pope is optimistic and not pessimistic for the future... because the present is what it is and what God permits it to be."

"The newspaper said the Pope then cited historical examples to show the 'irrefutable truth that the future has not responded to the signal and hands of men but to the signal and hands of God.'"

Advise Transfer Of City Issues

The Victoria Debenture Holders' Committee, in a circular letter to all known holders of old Victoria bonds, has advised such interests to exchange their holdings for the new city refunding issue, it was stated at the City Hall today.

The action was taken following expiration of the time in which an appeal could be made against the Court of Appeal ruling here declaring the refunding act valid. The committee had previously advised bondholders to delay transfer until the issue was settled.

The letter, above the signature of W. F. McIlroy, secretary, told holders to detach and present

SAYS TELEVISION READY FOR HOME

NEW YORK (AP)—Television is ready for the home, David Sarnoff, president of the Radio Corporation of America, told a meeting of the board of directors of the Radio Manufacturers' Association here today.

At the same time, he announced that his company "is planning to manufacture a limited quantity of television receivers which it expects to market by the time the New York world's fair opens next April 1."

COMMUNITY CHEST NOTES

One asks why Community Chest? Why not Common Chest or Society Chest or People's Chest? Well, the word community, from the Latin communis and communis, means "those who are in a state of common possession," and that is just what the Community Chest is, the common possession of all Victorians.

The index of any community's well-being is determined by its forces for social betterment. The welfare agencies represented by the Community Chest join with those other great forces—the church, home, and the school, to develop the community character.

It costs $600 a year from taxes to care for a delinquent in an institution, and there are doubts over the results. The Community Chest knows that it costs only $10 a year to care for a boy scout, a sea cadet, or young member of the Y.M.C.A. It is much better to prevent by recreational and guidance programs than it is to have to provide a cure.

Discovery that a thief defrauded a woman out of a dollar by representing himself as a Welfare Confederation (Community Chest) canvasser in Vancouver caused leaders of the drive in that city to issue a warning against giving to unauthorized people. All Victoria Community Chest canvassers carry their credentials.

It is rather fine to know that here in Victoria no man need ever go hungry—that he can always get something to eat at the Sunshine Inn, and "no questions asked." Sunshine Inn can do this fine job through the help you give to the Community Chest.

Up and down the coast, in and out among the islands, goes the good ship John Anlie of the Columbia Coast Medical Mission, bringing good health and good cheer to hundreds of settlers in out-of-the-way corners of our neighborhood. You can have a hand in this good work by supporting the Community Chest.

The preservation and betterment of human life remains the biggest job of a civilized society, and the Community Chest is still the most effective agency to perform the task.

The Community Chest represents a more orderly system than has ever been envisaged before for meeting health and welfare needs.

The need is great, but the response will be even greater when the generous heart of Victoria prompts the obvious answer to the challenging question "What if it were you?"

Never mind how careful they were when each social agency had to appeal direct to the public, the cost of the individual campaigns ran anywhere from 8 per cent to even 27 per cent of the money donated. This meant that 8 cents to 27 cents of every dollar subscribed was spent in operating expenses. As against this the operating expenses of the Community Chest campaign in Victoria cost last year less than 3 per cent. The actual figures were 2.2 per cent. So more than 97 cents in every dollar you give to the Community Chest goes directly to help those in actual need, and to re-establish those who are losing in life's battle, and to equip and train our youth to become good citizens.

One of the major tasks of the Community Chest is the rehabilitation of families, so that they will not have to depend on public benevolence. It also carefully considers the requirements of different agencies, knowing how much should be spent for the various services given by such to the community.

YOUNG LIBERALS

At the meeting of the 20th Century Young Liberal Association held in Liberal headquarters, E. W. Bourque presided. Miss D. Fairclough of the social committee said that the fancy dress Hal-low'en social will be held in the headquarters on Monday, October 24, at 8.30, free to members. Miss Mary Grant said those interested in dramatics would be welcome at the meetings which were held Mondays. Miss Joyce Murphy of the membership committee said the hall would be decorated at once. Richard Flanagan gave a report on the recent convention of Island Young Liberal groups held in Duncan and later a motion was passed thanking the Duncan association for their hospitality. The next general meeting will be November 1. An executive meeting will be held on October 27 at 564 Yates Street.

British Girl Guide Head Visits City

Returning to England after an eight-months' visit to New Zealand, Miss A. M. Knight, Girl Guide Commissioner for Great Britain, arrived here last night aboard the Canadian-Australian liner Niagara. She proceeded to Vancouver and the east today, and while here was the guest of Mrs. Alan Morkill, provincial commissioner, Pemberton Road.
"I found the Guide movement in New Zealand a very keen and enthusiastic one," Miss Knight said.

Women Bettors Lose In Police Raid

CHICAGO (AP)—A handbook operated exclusively by and for women was added to the list of 444 betting establishments chopped up by the Illinois State's attorney's axe squads.
The lady bettors were sipping soft drinks and coffee and nibbling jelly rolls between the races when the officers broke in the Lake Park Avenue handbook.
Detective Daniel Moriarty and his fellow officers went to work with axes, demolishing furniture, fixtures, racing sheets and equipment.
Bernice Sheppard, 25, taken into custody, said the handbook had been operated for women for eight or 10 years. She apologized for the four male bettors present.
They were guests of some women,
she said.

The success of the Victoria Community Chest depends on you.

Mr. and Mrs. James G. Kelly, who were married on Thanksgiving Day. The bride was Miss Eva Jessie Oliver, fourth daughter of Mrs. C. Oliver, 3177 Albina Street.

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

Among the many Victorians visiting in California is Mrs. H.
E. Ridewood, who is the guest of relatives in the south.

The many friends of Mrs. Shirley Simpson will regret to hear she is a patient in the Jubilee Hospital.

Mrs. Frank Mann of View
Royal, who has been spending the last month at her former home in England, returned to Victoria yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. A. G. L. McNaughton, wife of Major-General A. G. L.
McNaughton of Ottawa, formerly of Work Point Barracks, arrived in Vancouver today for a visit.

Mrs. G. E. Altred-Cole of Victoria, who has been spending the last ten months in England, was in Calgary on Thursday en route for her home in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Brown of Vancouver will arrive from the mainland tomorrow to spend the week-end with Mrs. J. Murray Cameron, Foul Bay Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey Phillips of Shanghai, who recently returned from an extended holiday in England, are spending about a month at The Angela, before sailing for their home in the Orient.

Miss Joan Pinhorn, who has been visiting relatives and friends in England and Ireland for the last six months, is expected to return to Victoria on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Salloway left this afternoon for Vancouver en route to Calgary. They will proceed east by way of the interior, visiting friends in Penticton.

Mrs. David Donald left recently for the east, and will spend several months in Ottawa as the guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Lieut. Commander and Mrs. F. R. W. R. Gow.

Mrs. Winona Eberts, who has been making her home in England for a number of years, returned to Victoria yesterday. She was met in Vancouver by her daughter, Miss Audrey Eberts,
and is staying at the Sussex.

Lieut.-Col. W. G. Colquhoun has arrived from Winnipeg to join Mrs. Colquhoun, who has been spending the summer months at The Angela. They will spend several weeks here before returning to their home in Manitoba.

Mrs. W. Robinson Pillar, Hampshire Road, left this afternoon for Spokane, Wash., to attend the funeral of her son-in-law, Mr. Sidney L. Johnston, who was killed in an automobile accident on Wednesday. Mrs. Pillar will remain in Spokane for an indefinite stay.

Mrs. Robert H. Arkell arrived yesterday from Vancouver to visit her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Geoffrey H. Tullard, Moss Street, and will be joined on Monday by Mr. Arkell.
They will be guests at the ball at Government House on Tuesday evening, and while in Victoria will stay at The Angela.

Mr. and Mrs. George Milburn and their son, Frank of Prince George, who have been visiting Mrs. F. Kermode, Oliver Street, Oak Bay, left today for their home in the north.

Capt. and Mrs. A. D. Barff, who have been residing at the James Bay Hotel, left this afternoon for Vancouver on their way to California for a visit of indefinite duration, before returning to England to reside.

Mr. and Mrs. John Reginald
Howard, formerly Miss Ethel
May Parsons, after a short visit in Victoria with Mrs. Howard's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred H.
Parsons, Manchester Road, on their return from a honeymoon trip up the island, left last night for Vancouver en route for Princeton, where they will make their home.

In honor of Miss Sue Harrigan, whose marriage to Mr. Charles Axhorn takes place this month, an enjoyable tea and shower was given by Mrs. Bryce Wallace, Belmont Avenue, on Wednesday afternoon. The rooms were artistically decorated with bronze and yellow chrysanthemums. Mrs.
M. Murray, sister of the bride-to-be, presided at the tea table, and Mrs. Robert Steen assisted with the serving. Miss Harrigan was the recipient of a number of beautiful gifts.

Miss P. Carr Hilton, "Shewatlans," Duncan, was hostess at a "kitchen" shower on Wednesday afternoon in honor of Miss Josie Bais, whose marriage is planned for early next month. The girls were first entertained with a "movie" contest, at which Miss J.
Bais, Miss Eileen Vaughan and Miss May Compton-Lundie tied,
the latter winning on the draw.
After tea a "parcel" addressed to Miss Bais was brought in, filled with many useful and delightful gifts. Amongst the invited guests were Mrs. D. Dobell, Mrs. R. Straiendorf, Mrs. D. Napier, the Misses Shirley Gooding, Jean, Kathleen and Dorothy Duncan, Eileen Vaughan, Eleanor Boyd-Wallis, Margaret Galloway, Betty Johnston and May Compton-Lundie.

A number of her friends paid a surprise visit last evening to the home of Miss Flora Clarke, 1134 Oscar Street, to present her with a shower of miscellaneous gifts. Halloween decorations were used throughout the rooms and the bride-to-be was presented with a gay basket, trimmed with a witch and colorful maple leaves, containing the many dainty and useful gifts. Games and music were enjoyed, and supper was served from a table centred with a pumpkin surrounded by maple leaves and Halloween favors and lighted green tapers. Those present included the Misses Flora Clarke, Iva Tait, Phyllis Cole, Estelle Clarke, Betty Richardson,
Amy Olsen, Maud Tait, Jean Tait,
Mrs. H. H. Clarke, Mrs. S. D.
Burns, Mrs. B. E. Lefevre, Mrs.
A. Cole, Mrs. T. E. Hollins, Mrs.
R. E. Burns, Mrs. W. Prevost,
Mrs. S. W. Buckle, Mrs. F. Dunderdale, Mrs. E. Richardson, Mrs.
R. Graves, Mrs. J. D. Burns, Mrs.
J. Stewart and Mrs. F. Green.

Mr. Glen E. Braden, M.P.P., and Mrs. Braden arrived yesterday from Dawson Creek, Peace River, to the Legislative session and are in residence at the Tweedsmuir Apartments.

Mrs. F. P. McNamee of Kam-loops, who has been visiting Mr.
and Mrs. Bruce Hutchison, is now staying at the Sussex. Dr.
McNamee will join her in a few days to spend a short holiday here.

On Tuesday next, Mr. and Mrs.
W. C. Todd, St. Charles Street, accompanied by Miss Roseanna Gillespie and Miss Honor Benson, will leave for San Francisco, and from there will motor to Los Angeles. They will make a five weeks' motor trip through southern California.

A pleasant evening was spent recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Knott, Birch Street, when members of the Neighborhood Druggists' Association and their wives met for the annual no-host dinner of the group.
Among those present were Mr.
and Mrs. Chas. Hudson, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Peacey, Mr. and Mrs.
Bert Aaronson, Mr. and Mrs. W.
R. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Elmore
Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. W.
Burrr, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Fulmer, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Peacey and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Knott.

Mrs. C. Dodgson and Mrs. S.
Matthews were hostesses recently at the home of the latter, 1219 Seaview Avenue, the occasion being the fifteenth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Matthews. Cards and contests were much enjoyed, and at midnight supper was served at a lace covered table prettily decorated with yellow chrysanthemums. The guests included: Mr. and Mrs.
G. Lane, Mr. and Mrs. C. Cooper,
Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Beaven, Mr.
and Mrs. C. Ellis, Mr. and Mrs.
W. Matthews and Mr. C. Dodge-son.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Game, 708
Admirals Road, entertained at a whist party and linen shower last night in honor of Miss Mildred Beckett and Mr. Colin Barwick, who are to be married shortly. Autumn flowers decorated the rooms, and the many attractive gifts were concealed in a large pumpkin, which was presented to the bride-to-be. Five tables of court whist were in play during the evening, following which a buffet supper was served from a prettily-arranged table.
The hostess was assisted by Misses Lily Beckett and Vera Game. Other guests included:
Mr. and Mrs. F. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. J. Beckett, Mr. and Mrs. J.
Game, Mr. and Mrs. J. Casillo,
Mr. and Mrs. S. Birschard, Mrs.
Chandler, Misses E. Burton, Lily
Beckett, A. Game, V. Game,
Messrs. K. Smith and R. Gray.

Mrs. J. Robson and Mrs. C.
Harrison, Koksilah, were joint hostesses at a miscellaneous shower at the latter's home on Wednesday afternoon in honor of Miss Audrey Thompson, who is being married today. The rooms were decorated with pink and gold ribbons and chrysanthemums with a miniature bride and

Lady Diana Cooper An Interesting Personality

LONDON—Lady Diana Cooper, wife of Mr. Alfred Duff Cooper, who has just made news of himself by retiring from the Cabinet after the Munich pact, is an interesting personality.
Daughter of the late Violet Duchess of Rutland, she was called Lady "Perfect" Manners as a girl and has held a reputation for beauty and grace ever since. Blue-eyed, golden-haired, with an oval face, she is one of the most beautiful women in society. Her mother drew a sketch of her in her cradle and ever since artists have been busy recording her good looks.
She has had a varied life, from playing the Madonna in the production of "The Miracle" in New York to working in her husband's political campaigns. She has also kept a flower shop and directed a gravel company. Now she acts as her husband's chauffeur.

Lady Diana and her husband spent a holiday in Victoria some years ago in the course of a Canadian tour.

CLASSES FOR SUBURBAN WIVES

Adult education classes to relieve the boredom of suburban wives have been advocated by Prof. John Hilton.
"In the suburbia of today," he said, "there is an immensity of unoccupied time and dreadful boredom, and longing for some sort of interest to fill the stagnant hours.

"Must you take the view the wife of the wage-earner generally has her hands too full to think much of filling her head?"
"Must we accept it as in the nature of things that the wife of a salary-earner may just as well be ruled out as the student in that she is under the compulsion of adding to all other wifely toils and cares the perm, the plucked eyebrow, the reddened nail, the afternoon tennis and the evening's bridge?"

BELMONT Y.P.S.

A "scavenger hunt" was held at the recent meeting of the Belmont Young People. The members were divided into groups of four and given one hour to procure the specified articles. Refreshments were served and games discussed after everyone had returned. Art Zala and Roy Whittle were responsible for this successful evening.

Miss Audrey Morrison, vice-president, will be in charge of the meeting on Monday at 7.30 p.m.

A Hollowe'en social will be held on Friday, October 28, at 8 p.m. The program will consist of progressive games, community singing, fortune telling, etc.

Tickets may be secured from any of the members. Ray Knott, Mona Emery, Audrey Morrison,
Roy Whittle, Art Zala, Roy Hundley and Bob Johnston are the committee in charge. This committee will meet on Friday night at the home of Mona Emery.

Countess of Carrick Weds Lord Chesham

ST. ALBAN'S, England (AP)—
The American-born Countess of Carrick was married yesterday to Baron Chesham while her former husband was en route to England with a new American bride. The Earl of Carrick married Margaret Power Drum of Helena, Mont., at Franklin, N.J., Wednesday, and sailed for England aboard the Queen Mary.
Lord Chesham was divorced last year. His wife is the former Mrs. Marion Edwards of Philadelphia.

Fairfield United Church W.M.S. held the autumn thankoffering meeting yesterday afternoon in the social hall, the president, Mrs.
G. Green, in the chair. After the opening hymn, prayer led by Mrs.
G. Gordon, and the thankoffering psalm, Mrs. G. Percy gave a resume of the work of the Honan Mission. This year the mission is celebrating its fiftieth anniversary, and the account of the progress made was of particular interest. One result was that the number of converts now exceeded 6,000. The treasurer of the W.M.S., Miss E. Hopkins, read a satisfactory financial statement; Mrs. W. Bevan read the temperance report, and Mrs. Bohlander read a letter from Mrs.
Welch, Bella Coala. Miss Estelle Clark spoke of the Mission Band work, and Mrs. Yardley, the Baby Band. Mrs. Crees and Miss Clark sang a duet. Mrs. C. Borup, the guest speaker, told of her life in India, where she worked as a missionary with her husband for 37 years. Mrs. C. A. Fields moved the vote of thanks to the speaker and the singers. Mrs. Creed and her circle were the tea hostesses.

"Fabulous Invalid" Toast to Theatre's Good Health

By GEORGE ROSS

NEW YORK—The most glamorous hours of this young theatre season were those when "The Fabulous Invalid" opened in the stately Broadhurst. It was an event of playgoing magnitude, for, after all, George S. Kaufman and Moss Hart, twin writing deities of the stage were the authors. Sam H. Harris, Broadway's ace producer, was the impresario. Seventy-five actors and actresses were in the cast. And excitement, founded upon rumor of the show's excellence, had been running high for months.

So the Broadhurst was the scene of a typically lavish premier. The folk who paraded through the lobby toward their seats all belonged to Who's Who. The celebrity-chasers, autograph hounds and hangers-on lined the curbs six deep. Traffic crawled through the narrow street. Inside, the two nervous authors paced the rear of the orchestra, like condemned men before the hangman comes along to take them, for Kaufman and Hart are notoriously high-strung authors on Opening Night.

SALUTES FORMER GLORIES

From start to finish, "The Fabulous Invalid," which is another way of saying the Ailing Theatre, is the story of the decline of a once-noble playhouse into a cheap burlesque emporium. They show the deterioration of Forty-second Street from a glamorous thoroughfare down to the current day when it looks like a coarser Coney Island. And they show how, despite the burdens that are placed upon the flesh and blood theatre, the invalid has managed to survive and keep its health.

They are concerned with a playhouse they call the Alexandria, though it is many a first nighter's suspicion that they refer to the Republic which once was a glamorous theatre and which wound up as a Minsky temple of the strip-tease. In that plush and polite Alexandria, they depict the early days when great actors and actresses and plays bore dignity along what is now a vulgarized Forty-second Street. But one night the leading man and leading lady die and backstage their ghosts meet a third spirit who instructs them to take their choice: Heaven or a permanent ticket to all the living plays. And their choice is obvious.

DOWN, DOWN, DOWN

So the three ghosts go down the century haunting the Alexandria as she gradually falls into evil and mercenary hands. First they see—and we, the audience, see—flashes of the Great Theatre that was alive during the 1900's. In a rapid succession of scenes, a few lines and a few moments of the vivid shows of this century are brought into the spotlight by a hard-working crew of players. The ghosts—and the audience—hear how the theatre is threatened from time to time. Once it is the automobile that is diverting people from the box office, then the actors' strike, then the war tax. Periodically, the death knell of the stage is sounded from behind the footlights.

And the poor Alexandria, haunted by three talkative ghosts, skids. The banks take the theatre away from its proprietor and auction it off to movie exhibitors. They cheapen it with Screeno and Bank Night and even they cannot make it pay. So the next to acquire it are burlesque managers.

Finally burlesque perishes with a municipal decree that banishes smut and dirty exhibits from the city. And the Alexandria, short by this time of all its former prestige, falls into the hands of a young and inspired troupe of actors which acquires the place cheaply and which is going to put on Shakespeare. The young troupe is led by none other than that ever-thoughtful Orson Welles, though the Messrs. Hart and Kaufman don't say so openly. He is the hero of "The Fabulous Invalid," really.

If the first-nighters were able witnesses, it was a tremendous success. Yet the critics seemed mixed in their enthusiasm the next day.

Incidentally, we noticed that in the audience on opening night was Frank Capra, the man who filmed the Messrs. Hart and Kaufman's "You Can't Take It With You." Undoubtedly, he was there on business, besides pleasure. The talk is that he is eager to film "The Fabulous Invalid," too.

Coming and Going

COLCHESTER, Eng. (CP)—In Bankruptcy Court here Donald Larter, 19, described himself as a professional backer of horses. He said he was a member of a syndicate which won and lost $2,000 ($9,660) in two days.

Eastern Star Dance Next Monday

Victoria Chapter, No. 17, Order of Eastern Star, will hold a dance in the Shrine auditorium on Monday evening, October 24, from 9 till 12.30. Len Acres will furnish the music.

Bride will be played in the lower hall and a sit-down supper will be served in the banquet hall. The arrangements are under the convenship of Mrs. W. Hichens-Smith, while the bride is being managed by Mrs. A. Hourston. Mrs. Jean Thompson is assisting. Invitations for the affair may be obtained from Mrs. Hichens-Smith, G 3889, or Mrs. Thompson, E 0890.

Langford

A meeting of the Langford Colwood branch of the Anglican Young People's Association was held in the Legion Hall at Langford Monday evening, Rev. R. E. M. Yerburch presiding. Ethel Brown and David McLean reported on the annual provincial conference. The secretary was instructed to write a letter to Miss Eileen Hinch, who is ill in Burns Lake Hospital. Plans were made for the annual meeting on October 24. An executive meeting of the Langford Parent-teacher Association was held in the school Tuesday afternoon. Reports of the recent Local Council meeting were given by Mrs. P. N. Welch and Miss H. Guy. A social evening will be held November 9.

A card party was held under the auspices of the Langford Women's Institute Wednesday evening. The highest scorer was Mrs. R. J. Smith.

FLOWERS AND CURLS

LONDON—The new hairdressing styles have made flowers in the hair for evening wear more popular than ever. They look attractive nestled amongst the curls on the crown of one's head. For flowery headresses, tobacco flowers, it seems, last better even than carnations when they are cut and are most effective for wearing in the hair. They look fragile and gardenia-like, have a lovely scent and can easily be fixed by a hairpin through their long tubular stems.

Lost in Big City

HAMILTON, Ont. (CP)—A visitor found this city's geography too tough. He drove friends to a north-end house, lost his bearings and started to walk. Police found the car three hours later.

HELPED JEWS MAKE ESCAPE

BOSTON (CP)—Miss Phyllis Bottome, the English novelist who also is a lecturer on psychology, here with her husband, Capt. Ernau Forbes-Dennis, says she is considering starting a "Human Being Society," having nothing to do with religion or politics, as an inducement for people to behave like human beings if they could.

The novelist believes the only hope for Germany is what she calls its "marvelous gift of stupidity." This gave her an opportunity to help innumerable Jewish friends to escape from the Reich. The Nazis never associated Mrs. Forbes-Dennis with the novelist, Phyllis Bottome, whose most recent book, "The Mortal Storm," is such a violent expose of the Nazi persecution of Jewish intellectuals.

"I've got all my friends out of Germany and Austria now, so I don't care whether they find it out or not," said Miss Bottome. Her greatest help in assisting refugees to escape came from a Jesuit priest and the Rockefeller Institute, she said. Through her labors as a "universal aunt," Miss Bottome found a cook for Halle Selassie. This cook was the wife of a Jewish banker, who helped establish soup kitchens in Vienna after the war, and is "a wonderful dietitian."

Modern Etiquette

By ROBERTA LEE

1. Is it good taste to wear dressy clothes for travel?
2. Is it all right for a woman on shipboard to go into the smoking room alone?
3. What is the usual number invited to a theatre party?
4. Should a host at a theatre party keep his guests waiting while he procures the tickets?
5. After a theatre party, should the order of going down the aisle be a matter of sending the honored guests first?

What would you do if—
You are at a movie with a friend who has seen the feature before and insists upon telling you ahead of time each event that is going to happen—
(a) Put up with it and say nothing?
(b) Say, "Shh! I don't want to know how it will turn out?"
(c) Say, "Let me guess what will happen?"

ANSWERS

1. No.
2. Yes.
3. Six or eight.
4. No.
5. No, in the order of seating. Best "What Would You Do?" solution—(a) or (c).

BLACKHEADS

Don't squeeze blackheads—dissolve them. Get two ounces of peroxide powder from any drug store and rub gently with wet, hot cloth over the blackheads. They simply dissolve and disappear by this safe and sure method. Have a Hollywood complexion.

- 1/2 cup sour milk
- 1/4 cup Rogers' Golden Syrup
- 1 teaspoon soda
- 1 teaspoon cream of tartar
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 2 tablespoons melted short

Mix and sift dry ingredients; add milk and Rogers' Golden Syrup, stirring just enough to mix ingredients. Lastly, add melted shortening. Bake at once in buttered pans in a hot oven for 20-25 minutes.

BUILDING TOTALS SHOW INCREASE

OTTAWA (CP)—An increase of $166,601 or 3.3 per cent was shown in building permits issued in 58 cities in Canada in September compared with the corresponding month last year, the figures being $5,278,381 against $5,111,780, the Dominion Bureau of Statistics reported today. Value of building authorized for the first nine months of 1938 was $43,104,172 slightly exceeding the aggregate of $42,960,983 for the same period in 1937 and being decidedly higher than in the first nine months in any other year since 1931.

Value of building permits issued in September by provinces, with figures for September, 1937, in brackets:

Prince Edward Island $2,800 ($4,400); Nova Scotia $213,793 ($148,130); New Brunswick $17,575 ($45,548); Quebec $1,893,480 ($1,192,977); Ontario $1,534,711 ($2,567,975); Manitoba $226,085 ($291,464); Saskatchewan $152,659 ($66,970); Alberta $630,805 ($201,607); British Columbia $606,473 ($588,712).

MEN AND BATTERIES

THE BEST FRIEND that a motorist can have, from the standpoint of satisfactory operation of an automobile, is a dealer who can be depended upon when automotive service or merchandise is needed. Experienced car-owners know they cannot afford to pick service stations casually.

Selecting the right dealer is not a difficult matter. Find the man who is making a success of his business... he is almost certain to be dependable. His concern for his own future prompts him to offer you the kind of service and merchandise that will make you a permanent customer. There is no surer indication of an automotive dealer's interest in your satisfaction than the brand of battery he handles... for, unlike other kinds of merchandise, the value of a storage battery is something you cannot see. And the dealer who does not take advantage of that fact but offers you a battery of unquestionable merit, justifies your complete confidence.

You are in good hands at service stations and garages displaying the Exide sign. It is a safe guide to follow in buying automotive merchandise and service generally. There is an Exide Battery designed to suit every car. Exide Hycap Batteries have extra high capacity for radio, heater, defroster, etc., with ample reserve for starting in any weather.

Look for the Exide Dealer sign—symbol of honest service.

Anglo-German Unity Urged

But Hoare Also Pledges
British Government
To Speed Defence

CLACTON-ON-SEA, Eng. (CP. Havas)—Sir Samuel Hoare last night appealed for Anglo-German co-operation to "fill up the trenches which have been dividing Europe." At the same time he gave the government's pledge Great Britain would speed its rearmament and turn the United Kingdom into a fortress against air attack.

The Home Secretary, addressing a National Government meeting here, defended Britain's preparations for war as based not on a distrust of Chancellor Hitler's "peaceful aspirations" but by the fear a successor to Hitler may not hold the chancellor's views on the need for amity between Britain and the Reich.

"Without friendly relations between England and Germany," the Home Secretary declared, "there can be no stable peace in the world."

The minister disclosed plans would soon be announced to make the civilian home front as ready for action as any fighting service.

A vast campaign, he promised, would be set into motion to perfect anti-aircraft equipment, build up the air force, assure effective distribution of gas masks and create a system of trench refuges to make Britain impregnable against a "knockout blow" from the air.

fort, the Home Secretary added, would be "founded on British character, British corporate organization and British institutions, including the British preference for voluntary service."

HITLER'S PLEDGE

Sir Samuel came vigorously to the defence of the Munich declaration signed by Hitler and Prime Minister Chamberlain which cast out war as a means of settling Anglo-German differences.

"Our critics declare that these are idle words and that you cannot believe the pledges of the German Fuehrer," the Home Secretary said after reading the text of the peace declaration.

"I refuse to accept his view. I believe Herr Hitler, having met our Prime Minister and having freely discussed with him, man to man, the questions that may divide our two countries, means what he says."

"I am also convinced that without friendly relations between England and Germany there can be no stable peace in the world."

Sir Samuel recalled that he, on behalf of the British government, signed the Anglo-German naval agreement which Hitler had kept in its letter and in its spirit.

Nevertheless, he continued, Britain must unflinchingly bolster her defences.

LONDON (CP)—"Fainting among females went out of fashion a long time ago," said Miss Doris Gravett's lawyer in court. The girl suffered from fainting fits, headaches and insomnia since an accident to a bus in which she was travelling. She was awarded £106 ($511) damages and costs.

THE Dominion of Canada is, economically, a small community on a large scale. The exchange of goods and services which takes place in a village or a small town also takes place between producing regions and industrial areas, between towns and farmlands, between Provinces — East and West. Industrial Eastern Canada buys fruit and food as well as lumber, metals and other commodities from British Columbia. Vast quantities of supplies are also purchased from all other Provinces. With the cash provided by the industrial buyers, producers in these Provinces in turn purchase manufactured goods and foodstuffs from elsewhere in Canada.

For instance, much of the cash that is paid Prairie producers by the industrial East for its food requirements goes to British Columbia in payment of lumber, fruits, canned goods and manufactured articles consumed on the Prairies.

The Dominion of Canada is prosperous when inter-Provincial trade moves goods and services in increasing volume, when supply and demand is stimulated by large payrolls. Thus every British Columbia family is directly and indirectly affected by the welfare and prosperity of all Canadian families including those of the Automotive Industry which has 130,000 people dependent directly on it.

For statistical and further information about this industry, write to Automotive Industries, 1006 Lumsden Building, Toronto.

DUNCAN HOSPITAL
DUNCAN—At the monthly meeting of the board of directors of Duncan Hospital, the financial report for the month showed a total revenue of $5,290.25 against expenditure of $5,114.57. It was reported that there had been a considerable falling off in the number of patients treated, the daily average being 51.2. During the month 126 patients were admitted, the total days' treatment being 1,508. There were 12 major operations, 75 minor, 15 births and three deaths. The president and secretary were appointed delegates to attend the annual convention of the B.C. Hospitals at the Empress Hotel on November 8, 9 and 10.

The first excavations at Pompeii in the eighteenth century were undertaken mainly to dig up art objects which could be sold.

Forest Park Work Studied

Chief Forester Says B.C. Can Develop Many Beautiful Areas

British Columbia must use vision and imagination in developing its forest recreational areas and must be careful about regulating any concessions given in them, according to Ernest C. Manning, chief forester, who returned this week from a visit to Washington and Oregon studying forestry trends with G. P. Melrose of the forest service.

Mr. Manning said the United States Forest Service and National Park Service plans the development of its forest areas well ahead, employing landscape architects and trained engineers.

"We feel," said Mr. Manning, "that our own beauty spots on this side of the line are at least equally attractive and, with the proper development, would prove a great asset to the province."

"We were particularly impressed with the increasing popularity of skiing. It was simply amazing and we are convinced that we must develop several of our own areas suitable for this purpose as rapidly as possible." Mr. Manning said he and Mr. Melrose found the logging industry in the northwest states was making satisfactory progress in leaving cut-over land in the Douglas fir region in productive condition. The program includes prompt disposal of slash, snag-felling and the leaving of seed trees.

"Apparently the majority of the industry fully realize their responsibility in these matters and are voluntarily going considerably further than required by law. Whether it be in British Columbia or Washington, observance of such basic forestry requirements must accompany any serious move to provide for a new crop on our cut-over lands."

Mr. Manning said selective logging was still a subject of controversy and experiment.

"It is excellent in theory, but to date in practice largely remains a method of high-grading a stand, leaving it very subject to wind-throw and fire," he said.

REMEMBRANCE DAY OFFICE OPENED

Poppy Campaign Launched To Provide Work and Funds for War Veterans

With the organization of an office at 719 Broughton Street today the Remembrance Day committee has launched its 1938 poppy campaign.

The purposes of this campaign are to further the humanitarian efforts of the various veterans' organizations and their supporting auxiliaries. The aims are three-fold — first, as the name signifies: Remembrance. In carrying out the first, the second and third come into action; work for the disabled soldiers who make the poppies, and the creation of a fund to allow some comfort in times of stress to less fortunate veterans and their families.

Poppy Day, over a period of years, has become an accepted feature each fall in Victoria, and past years have shown a most generous spirit of support from young and old. The hope is that this year the response will be bigger and better than ever.

Those who served in the Great War are getting older, and the strength sapped by service is weakening more rapidly as the prime of life slips by. It is hoped that the poppy sales this year will produce a fund sufficiently increased to cope with this situation.

The campaign will be built up with a steady increase of momentum, reaching a climax at a tag day poppy sale on Saturday, November 5, and the parade and service at the Cenotaph on Remembrance Day itself, Friday, November 11.

COUPLE ROBBED IN VANCOUVER

VANCOUVER (CP)—Police today sought a pair of armed bandits who bound and gagged Mr. and Mrs. George W. Cranham in their west 10th Avenue home and escaped with $80 in cash.

Officers said the robbers broke into the house late last night and waited for the couple, proprietors of the Arcade Whist Club. As Mr. and Mrs. Cranham entered the house, the outlaws, both masked, came up from the basement and used guns to force their victims to submit.

After tying and gagging the pair, the thugs ransacked the house and then took the money from the couple as they made their exit.

Mr. Cranham managed to free himself later and call police.

T. G. Holt, fourth vice-president of the Canadian Northern Pacific Railway, is in the city visiting the local office of the company. He denies that he is here to let any more contracts. The completion of the Patricia Bay line is the big care of the company now and until track is laid on this division there will be no more contracts let. The completion of track-laying Mr. Holt expects early next year as gangs of men are now at work all along the division getting ready for this important operation.

When the C.P.R. steamer Princess Mary arrives here next week she will not only be slated for the installation of oil burners but also for lengthening. The vessel is to have a new section, approximately 40 feet in length, inserted in her hull and this will make her five feet longer than the Princess Sophia, and the same distance from stern to stern as the Princess Mary. It is more than likely that the big job will be carried out by one of the local shipbuilding yards.

The principal business before the meeting of the police commissioners this afternoon is the presentation of the grand jury on the condition of the city lock-up.

By boats and trains in the last 24 hours delegates have reached the city for the tenth convention of the School Trustees Association of British Columbia. This gathering is taking place in the George Jay School.

LORD STANLEY FUNERAL HELD

Remains of Late British Cabinet Member Buried in Lancashire

LONDON (CP)—A private funeral service for the late Lord Stanley was held yesterday at the Knowsley parish church in Lancashire. The Earl and Countess of Derby, parents of the late Secretary of State for the Dominions, were among the mourners, but Lady Stanley could not attend due to injuries suffered in an accident.

The service was read by Rt. Rev. Albert David, Bishop of Liverpool, and Rev. F. A. H. Score, vicar of Knowsley.

The King and Queen and the Duke of Windsor sent representatives to a memorial service in Westminster Abbey for Lord Stanley, which was attended by Prime Minister and Mrs. Neville Chamberlain, Viscount Halifax, High Commissioner and Mrs. Vincent Massey and other high officials.

Every precaution was taken to keep the funeral at Knowsley church strictly private.

The mourners included Rt. Hon. Oliver and Lady Maureen Stanley, John Stanley, the Duchess of Marlborough, the Duke of Buccleuch the Marquess of Londonderry and the Duke of Devonshire.

A memorial service also was held in Manchester Cathedral with Very Rev. G. H. Williams, Dean of Manchester, officiating.

Lord Stanley, who was in his 45th year, died last Sunday.

Durum Wheat Crop 22,000,000 Bushels

WINNIPEG (CP)—The 1938 western Canada durum crop is similar in character to last year's crop, states the third annual report on quality of durum wheat which was released by the Canadian board of grain commissioners yesterday.

Chief degrading factors of both years were improperly ripened, cracked and broken kernels and black point infection.

The current crop is estimated at 22,000,000 bushels compared with about 30,000,000 for the previous year.

PRIEST ENDS FAST

PALMERTON, Pa. (AP)—Rev. Lazar Kirichenkoff, complying with an order from his archbishop, ate solid food yesterday for the first time since he began a fast 19 days ago which he hoped would bring more young people to his tiny Russian Orthodox Church. Archbishop Theophilus of San Francisco commended the 46-year-old priest for his "faithful strength," but directed him to break his fast "for the benefit of yourself and your health."

Take a Tip from Tired Feet... Have an Extension Telephone

Poor Mrs. Tripling! Her feet are so tired at the end of every day. There is just one telephone in her home and it's on the main floor. Very often it rings when Mrs. Tripling is up in her bedroom, and she finds those mad dashes down the stairs very exhausting. She should take a tip from tired feet and have an extension telephone installed in her bedroom. The installation charge is only $1.00.

English Clubs Are Weakened

Sports Mirror

By PETE SALLAWAY

THERE IS ONE angle of the recent world baseball series that has yet to be mentioned. The champion New York Yankees certainly proved that so-called "dead" National League ball will go plenty far when it is really and truly smacked. In the opening game there was only one hard-hit made by the Yanks. It was belted against the right field wall by young Tommy Henrich.

"It's the ball," explained the Chicago Cubs. "The cover on the National League ball is heavier and a bit looser. The stitches are raised, enabling pitchers to obtain a firmer grip. The National League ball twists more than the smooth and more tightly-wrapped American League ball with its buried seams. That was why Carl Hubbell's screwball was good again this year until he hurt his arm. You will recall that it wasn't quite as effective last year. "It goes without saying that our deadened ball... constructed to favor the pitcher... can't be hit as far as the American League ball, which is unchanged."

But when little Frank Crosetti and big Joe DiMaggio finally caught up with Dizzy Dean in the eighth and ninth innings of the second engagement, the Cubs no doubt had a different idea, especially after DiMaggio's titanic tap sailed over the left field bleachers and across the avenue beyond.

The Cubs then knew that it all depended on who hit the National League ball—or any other kind.

They also realized that while five Yankees—DiMaggio, Lou Gehrig, Bill Dickey, Henrich, and Joe Gordon—manufactured 20 or more home runs, there were three others equipped to fashion one at any time... four others when the mighty Red Ruffing was pitching. And that it was an old Yankee custom to do something like that in a clutch.

Such power hitting enabled the Yankees to complete three full campaigns during which they did not lose a season's series to an American League rival.

But Dizzy Dean insists that the Rupperts wouldn't cop the National League pennant by 19 games as they did the American in 1936, or by 13½, which was their margin last term, or by 10½, which was their lead this year, despite a protracted late season slump.

"A pitcher has to apologize to the umpire when he throws a ball close to an American League batter," explains Ol' Diz. "The Yankees wouldn't take toe-holds in the National... not against me, anyway."

But Crosetti and DiMaggio didn't exactly cringe and run away from the plate on those home runs in the second game.

Texas League managers declare that Schoolboy Rowe was as formidable as ever during the last three weeks of the grind. The large right-hander bagged 14 and lost only two... averaged only one base on balls for every 13 innings pitched... hurled the Beaumont club into the Dixie series.

This will be good news in Detroit, where the Tigers haven't been the same since the Schoolboy's shoulder went haywire.

International Match Robs Soccer Teams of Stars; Arsenal on Spot

LONDON (CP)—Many English football clubs will have weakened lineups for tomorrow's round of league games on account of the match between England and Wales at Cardiff. Preston North End, the Gunners' opponent at Highbury, made a sporting gesture by offering to play the league fixture at a later date. The Londoners expressed appreciation of the offer, but declined.

No doubt is entertained regarding strength of England's defence against the Welshmen, but selection of Goulden of West Ham United and Boyes, Everton, for the left wing of the attack is the subject of some criticism. In previous international tilts Goulden has usually had Morton, his clubmate, as partner.

The Welsh eleven will include Green, Charlton Athletics' right half, whose two-year-old son was drowned this week in a fish pond in a neighbor's garden. The grief-stricken father finally decided to take part in the match.

Loyalty to their club, fighting for points in the danger zone of the major league, caused Richards and Hughes, Birmingham players, to offer to give up their places in the Welsh team. The Midland Club's directors agreed to release them, however.

EVERTON LOSES THREE

Three Everton players will be missing when the league-leading club opposes Leeds United, Derby County, whose point total is the same as Everton, play Manchester United. At full strength Bolton Wanderers, only two points behind the pacesetter, will fight hard at Huddersfield. The home team will play without Willingham and Young, noted halfbacks chosen for England.

Fulham's place at the top of the second division table doesn't appear to be seriously threatened. The Londoners will entertain Southampton at the weekend and should be able to take the measure of the Saints, now in 19th position.

Third division leaders are faced with real opposition. In the southern section Newport County have a home match against Exeter City. The City has shown surprising strength this year. Barnsley and Oldham Athletic are joint leaders of the northern circuit. The former plays Southport, beaten only once in the current campaign, and Oldham is away to Doncaster. Last Saturday Doncaster drew 1 to 1 at Barnsley.

SCOTTISH LEAGUE

GLASGOW—The race for soccer honors in the Scottish League again is developing a fight between Celtic and Rangers. During the past six years the Glasgow clubs have smashed all opposition, the light blues being successful four times and the Celts twice.

Although Rangers lead their rivals by a point, the youthful Celts have a game in hand and have shown defensive and attacking strength superior to any team in the league. Celtic's goal has been pierced only 12 times while Rangers have given away 24 goals. The Celts scoring (Turn to Page 14, Col. 2)

Arena Plans to Go to Council

Financing Might Be Arranged Under Dominion Loan Program

Victoria's proposed arena was up for discussion again yesterday. A group of interested citizens under the chairmanship of F. E. Winslow gathered in Spencer's dining-room for luncheon with five aldermen.

Various angles of the scheme were discussed and suggestions were made that the financing might be arranged under the 2 per cent building loan program of the Dominion Government, with the City Council underwriting the amount. It was suggested that $150,000 would construct the proposed arena, which, financed over a period of 20 years, would require less than $10,000 annually to pay interest and provide for sinking fund requirements.

The hope was expressed that a suitable scheme could be prepared in time to present a by-law to the electors at the civic elections in December.

During the meeting C. Elwood Watkins described the plans drawn for the arena, and told of an alternate site on Pandora Avenue. The latter was favored by some as it would provide more room for expansion, if it was found necessary.

The following motion, sponsored by Everett Taylor and seconded by Harold Wilson, was unanimously carried:

"Resolved that the chairman be authorized to write to the mayor and council to ask the earliest possible date be set for a joint meeting of the mayor and council with the Victoria Forum Association to discuss the requirements of the city placing a money by-law before the electors at the December election."

Hunters Bag Three Moose

Reg Rigby, Jim Dugan And George Lock Have Fine Sport in Cariboo

One of the finest arrays of big game trophies taken out of the Cariboo this year decorated a hunting party's travel-stained car that arrived in town yesterday evening and attracted a large gallery of admiring spectators on Broad Street.

Decorating the car were the heads of two huge bull moose, a black bear and a mule deer.

Reg Rigby, a former Victoria sportsman who is now located at Cowichan, Jim Dugan and Geo. Lock, both of Cobble Hill, comprised the party.

The hunters had just returned from a 10-day hunting trip in the Lac La Hache area, 35 miles from Williams Lake. Rigby, in relating some of the highlights of their trip, appeared to be greatly enthused over the fine hunting offered in B.C.'s interior, and highly recommended it to those sportsmen who want a taste of real sport.

Each member of the party bagged a moose, all of which weighed in the neighborhood of 1,200 pounds, and had huge antler spreads. Rigby shot the buck deer and Dugan brought down the bear, a cub.

They made their headquarters at a farm house that caters to sportsmen in that district, and carried the kills back to headquarters by pack horses.

Gala Tonight

With the largest entry in the history of the event the annual gala for the schoolchildren of Greater Victoria will be held tonight at the Crystal Garden. The first event is slated for 8.

All the leading schools will be represented, and competition is certain to prove keen.

EXPRESS THANKS
To the Sports Editor:—May I express my personal thanks for the co-operation regarding my appeal for sponsors to help the younger soccer players. Norman Hill of Hill's Corner Grocery is one of the youngsters wish to thank. He has been kind enough to take a team in hand, which I appreciate very much. I hope through Mr. Hill to be able to produce some soccer material that in years to come will be outstanding.

RUPPERT FEELS BETTER—Nothing like good news to cheer up a bedridden patient. Here's Colonel Jacob Ruppert, owner of the three-time world champion New York Yankees, beaming happily as he learned that his "Ruppert Rifles" had trimmed the Chicago Cubs in four straight games, winning the last one 8 to 3, in the world baseball series at Yankee Stadium, New York. Colonel Ruppert was confined to his home by illness during the series.

Big Grid Battles

Calgary Bronks and Edmonton Eskimos Meet in Grudge Battle; Ottawa Riders and Argos in Eastern Feature

EDMONTON (CP)—If further fuel was needed to increase interest in the "grudge" battle here tomorrow between Calgary Bronks and Edmonton Eskimos, it is evidently has been realized by donation, or maybe revival, for competition of a trophy emblematic of the Alberta football championship.

The teams will finish the Western Interprovincial Football Union schedule in a game prelude by sports bitterness never approached since the days of the old western Canada professional hockey rivalry.

President N. A. MacPhee of the Edmonton Sport Boosters' Club, sponsor of Eskimos, discovered the Boulanger Cup in a cellar this week, and he has announced it will be at stake tomorrow.

The Boulanger Trophy, believed to have been the prize of Edmonton-Calgary football battles sporadically between 1909 and 1923, will add to the background of a game already crammed with bitter feelings.

EASTERN SCHEDULE

TORONTO—The first big blow of the Interprovincial Rugby Football Union's 1938 season, which has gone two weeks in the calmest manner, comes up tomorrow with those old-time rivals, Ottawa Rough Riders and Toronto Argonauts, prepared to commit a slight case of mayhem on one another in the east's feature game.

Both clubs have breezed past Montreal Cubs and Hamilton Tigers, who will be settling the cellar position at Hamilton, and both are close to top strength.

Elimination faces at least one team in each of the three senior unions as the schedule moves to the half-way mark. Losers of two straight, Peterborough Orions of the O.R.F.U. and Queen's University, the intercollegiate champions of 1937, face stern opposition.

Orfuns make a home stand against Sarnia Imperials, who are rated to win almost as they please. Queen's, weakened by injuries, must beat the powerful, undefeated McGill Redmen to retain serious hopes in the college race. They play at Montreal.

Some good football should come from Montreal, with the Nationals and Toronto Balmy Beach meeting for the first time, and from London where University of Toronto fight it out with western Mustangs for second place in the college circuit.

Students Score Close Hoop Win

Defeat West Road Squad 30 to 26 After Overtime

Sinking two baskets in a five-minute overtime period against a battling West Road basketball squad, Chinese Students scored their second straight win of the season, 30 to 26, in a men's senior B fixture at the High School gym last evening.

The Students were leading 23 to 22 as timekeeper Colie Chambers was about to sound the final bell. Referee Bob Macmurchie, at the same time, called a foul on the Students which tied the score. The extra play proved a thriller with the Students turning in some classy ball to finish four points ahead.

The West Road team tied at the end of the first half 12 to 9. George Lowe did most of the damage for the Students scoring 12 points and R. Mitchell wound up with an individual high score of 10 for the West Roaders.

Prior to the main fixture, Caveys defeated the Bees 26 to 20 in an intermediate A boys' game, and the Beavers beat the Garrison in a men's senior C fixture, scoring 38 points to the army boys' 23.

Referees, Macmurchie and Alexander.

Line-ups and individual scores follow:

Chinese Students—George Lowe 12, Wallace Lee 1, Herbert Chan 8, Chuck Nip 2, Roy Ngah 5, Allan Chan and Ben Mar 2.

West Road—E. Butler 9, R. Mitchell 10, McAtty 1, A. Gunn 1, B. Gunn 3, W. Butler and B. Mitchell 2.

Beavers—B. Stirrup 11, T. Ellis 2, D. Featherston 4, D. Ghent 14, Dr. Giralad 2, G. Meadmore, J. McSwen and K. Ghent 5.

Garrison—Wilkinson 3, Gentley 4, Wright 10, Sparks, Richardson 2, McCorkill 4, Pocock, Sedger and Davidson.

Caveys—James 1, Beere 1, Fields 7, Fair 2, Cumming 2, Morrison 1, Inglis, Davies 7, and Cosier 5.

Bees—Taylor 4, Richards 3, Stevenson 2, Minnis 3, Watson 4, Prendergast 1 and Thomas 3.

BABE RUTH OUT OF GAME AGAIN

Former Home Run King Denies Rumors About Having New Job

NEW YORK—To all intents and purposes, Babe Ruth is through with baseball—and vice versa—at least for the time being.

You hear talk and rumors the big fellow quit his coaching job with Brooklyn Dodgers to land another spot, possibly a managerial berth in the American Association. But right now you can take the Babe's word for it, he has no immediate prospects of a return to the game he pulled to $1,000,000 heights, and which did the same for him.

"Not me," he said yesterday. "There's nothing to those reports."

"All I'm interested in these days is hunting and fishing and maybe some more golf. I'm going to do all the things a young guy does to keep from growing old."

Of course, there's always the possibility that when the major and minor league meetings roll 'round, or when the spring arrives with its call to another diamond campaign, the Babe may be gripped by the ball fever again.

He might land in Milwaukee, as has been hinted, or in Montreal, where Rabbit Maranville was fired last year, or it is even conceivable the Big Leagues can find a spot for the Babe.

SOCCER PRACTICE

Spencer's football team will hold a workout on Sunday morning at 10:30, at the Athletic Park.

Rangers Beat Amerks

Capture First of Exhibition Hockey Series 2 to 1 After Overtime; 5,000 See Free-for-all Near Finish

WINNIPEG—Lester Patrick's Rangers scored a 2 to 1 overtime victory last night over Mervyn (Red) Dutton's Americans as New York's two National Hockey League teams opened a six-game exhibition tour of western Canada.

A capacity crowd of 5,000 at the Amphitheatre rink here saw a product of Winnipeg's corner rinks, Alex Shibicky, rap home the winning goal on a solo dash at 6:53 in the overtime period.

Rangers counted the first goal in the second period when Nell Colville picked up Cecil Dillon's pass and beat Earl Robertson in the Americans' nets. Johnny Sorrell tied it up at 12:24 of the third period with the veteran Hooley Smith and Al Murray credited with assists.

The teams were at full strength when Shibicky fired the winning goal from 30 feet out, but just as the puck hit the net Dutch Hiller of Rangers and Tommy Anderson of Amerks exchanged blows in a corner and a free-for-all broke out. Hiller and Anderson were given major penalties.

The teams move to Saskatoon for games tomorrow and Tuesday. They play in Edmonton October 27 and 29 and return here to close the exhibition tour with a game October 31.

Lineups follow:
Rangers—Kerr; Heller, Pratt; Watson; Hiller, Hextall, Subs.—C. Smith, L. Patrick, Dillon, N. Colville, M. Colville, Shibicky, M. Patrick, Coulter and Molyneux.

Americans—Robertson; Gallagher, Field; Chapman; Schirmer, Carr. Subs—Stewart, Wiseman, Anderson, H. Smith, Sorrell, Beattie, Jerwa, Egan and Murray.

Officials—C. Campbell, Edmonton and L. Lyndon, Winnipeg.

First period—No scoring. Penalty, Hextall.
Second period—1, Rangers: N. Colville (Dillon), 6:53. Penalties: Field, Jerwa, M. Patrick, L. Patrick and Heller.

SOCCER
Four of the five first division soccer clubs will be in action tomorrow. After winning their first match from the Saanich Thistles last week 7 to 1 the Garrison will attempt to make it two straight victories at the expense of Esquimalt at the Athletic Park.

Victoria West, last year's league champions, will engage the Thistles at Heywood Avenue. Both matches will start at 3.

Three games are carded in the Intermediate League as follows: Navy vs. Camerons, Admirals Road; referee, Matherson. Caveys vs. Young Liberals, Central Park; referee, F. Saunders. Longshoremen vs. Cooperage, Beacon Hill; referee, E. Borde.

All games start at 2:30.

The Merchants League has the following games carded: Admirals vs. Mount Tolmie, Victoria West Park; referee, E. Paul. Navy vs. Conservatives, Central Park; referee, E. Bray. Kick-offs at 2:30.

Teams follow: Esquimalt—Hood, Moody, Laird, Barnswell, Halkett, McBay, Bell, A. Stewart, J. Watt, H. Payne, Cooper, Holt, J. Watt, H. Sage, Gould and J. Stewart.

SOCCER PRACTICE
Spencer's football team will hold a workout on Sunday morning at 10:30, at the Athletic Park.

Rangers Beat Amerks

Capture First of Exhibition Hockey Series 2 to 1 After Overtime; 5,000 See Free-for-all Near Finish

WINNIPEG—Lester Patrick's Rangers scored a 2 to 1 overtime victory last night over Mervyn (Red) Dutton's Americans as New York's two National Hockey League teams opened a six-game exhibition tour of western Canada.

A capacity crowd of 5,000 at the Amphitheatre rink here saw a product of Winnipeg's corner rinks, Alex Shibicky, rap home the winning goal on a solo dash at 6:53 in the overtime period.

Rangers counted the first goal in the second period when Nell Colville picked up Cecil Dillon's pass and beat Earl Robertson in the Americans' nets. Johnny Sorrell tied it up at 12:24 of the third period with the veteran Hooley Smith and Al Murray credited with assists.

The teams were at full strength when Shibicky fired the winning goal from 30 feet out, but just as the puck hit the net Dutch Hiller of Rangers and Tommy Anderson of Amerks exchanged blows in a corner and a free-for-all broke out. Hiller and Anderson were given major penalties.

The teams move to Saskatoon for games tomorrow and Tuesday. They play in Edmonton October 27 and 29 and return here to close the exhibition tour with a game October 31.

Lineups follow:
Rangers—Kerr; Heller, Pratt; Watson; Hiller, Hextall, Subs.—C. Smith, L. Patrick, Dillon, N. Colville, M. Colville, Shibicky, M. Patrick, Coulter and Molyneux.

Americans—Robertson; Gallagher, Field; Chapman; Schirmer, Carr. Subs—Stewart, Wiseman, Anderson, H. Smith, Sorrell, Beattie, Jerwa, Egan and Murray.

Officials—C. Campbell, Edmonton and L. Lyndon, Winnipeg.

First period—No scoring. Penalty, Hextall.
Second period—1, Rangers: N. Colville (Dillon), 6:53. Penalties: Field, Jerwa, M. Patrick, L. Patrick and Heller.
Third period—2, Americans: Sorrell (Smith-Murray), 12:24. Penalties: Anderson, Heller, Coulter and Jerwa.
Overtime period—3, Rangers, Shibicky, 6:53. Penalties: Murray, Hiller (major) Anderson (major).

Lorne Carr Has Badly Cut Ankle

WINNIPEG—Lorne Carr of Calgary, clever New York Yankees' right winger, suffered from tendons in his right ankle during the exhibition game with New York Rangers here last night. Carr's ankle was cut by Neil Colville's skate late in the second period, and he was removed to hospital.

Manager Mervyn (Red) Dutton of Americans said after the game he did not know how long Carr would be out of the lineup. Hospital authorities reported his condition as "good."

SPORTS WRITERS WILL GET BREAK

June O'Dea Gomez to Organize Team of Players
Wives to Meet Scribes

TORONTO—It's going to be different for the wives of the baseball players in the New York Yankees' training camp next spring. And it's the sports writers who will find it so.

June O'Dea Gomez, wife of the Yanks' great southpaw, revealed in an interview here Wednesday the wives are going to organize a team. The former musical star will emulate her husband and do the pitching; Mrs. Lou Gehrig will play first and Mrs. Bill Dickey will catch.

"We don't know yet whom we'll play," she said. "We can't play against a ball team, so I guess we'll have to challenge the sports writers. They are the only ones in a weakened condition."

Lefty and his wife stopped here Wednesday night en route to Quebec and the Maritimes for a two-week visit.

Mrs. Gomez said probably her greatest thrill in baseball to date was Lefty's feat of defeating the New York Giants twice in the 1937 world series.

"However, I think I'd be more thrilled if he ever hit a home run. The trouble is he never gets a hit at all."

ENGLISH CLUBS ARE

column shows 46 goals netted, two more than Rangers.

Last Saturday while Celtic and Clyde battled for the Glasgow Cup, Rangers moved to the top of the league standing by whipping Partick Thistle 4 to 1. At the week-end Thistles are at home to Celtic and the match will afford a good opportunity for Glasgow fans to compare the performances of the contenders for leadership.

Rangers go to Kilmarnock where the home team will have to play in top form to duplicate last year's 2 to 1 triumph.

Joint holders of third position in the league table, Aberdeen and Queen of South, both play on foreign soil against strong challenging clubs. Aberdeen meet Hearts at Tynecastle Park while the Dummies outfit plays Clyde.

Queen's Park is away to Albion Rovers. The famous amateurs are at the bottom of the league with five points and Rovers are only one point higher.

A triple deadlock exists at the top of the second division, Cowdenbeath, Alloa and East Fife setting the pace with 16 points. Alloa may go under at Dunfermline but ground advantage should give Cowdenbeath and East Fife the points against Dundee and Dumbarton, respectively.

Submarines have been tried in warfare since the American Revolution.

Hockey Gossip

There's no need for New York's National League entries, Rangers and Americans, to give western Canada fans blood-and-thunder hockey in their current exhibition tour—the customers will come anyway. But eventually the league's last intractably rivals mean to battle as if the Stanley Cup were at stake.

Five thousand watched the Rangers defeat the Americans 2 to 1 at Winnipeg last night as they opened the "wheat league" campaign, and others were turned away at the box office. It was certain then the trek would be a financial success, but the teams put on a fiery show anyway with a free-for-all fight thrown in.

Neil Colville put Rangers ahead in the second period and Johnny Sorrell tied it up in the third. Then just as Alex Shibicky scored the winning goal, Tommy Anderson of Americans and young Dutch Hiller of the blue-shirts started a general melee that earned them major penalties.

Detroit Red Wings' three lines for their exhibition with Cleveland Barons of the International-American League at Cleveland tonight have been drawn up by Manager Jack Adams. The lines, from left to right: No. 1, Herbie Lewis, Marty Barry, Charlie Conacher; No. 2, Syd Howe, Don Deacon, Modere Bruneteau; No. 3, Eddie Wares, Alex Motter, Carl Liscombe.

Chicago Black Hawks' attacking units are just about aligned at their Champaign, Ill., camp. Russ Blinco will play centre between Baldy Northcott and Earl Robinson, whom he partnered with Montreal Maroons last winter. Doc Romnes, Mush March and Paul Thompson will be together again. Johnny Gottsell and Cully Dahlstrom apparently have clinched places on the third string and Joffre Desilets has an edge over Al Demarco, Phil Besler and Harold Jackson for right wing.

Montreal Canadiens signed their 18th man yesterday when Jimmy Ward put it down as "James." It is believed all those who will be regulars have put their names to contracts. Manager Cecil Hart will have to dispose of some of his amateur candidates among teams of the Quebec Senior Hockey League, since Canadiens and their pre and amateur farms, New Haven and Verdun, can't absorb them all.

Two kids who have roomed together while teammates at Sudbury are battling for the 16th position with Boston Bruins. Pat McReavy and Glen Sutherland have been told they're the ones for the job. Both are centres.

Marking the fact that Sonja Henie had obtained Stewart Reburn as her figure-skating partner, Coach Dick Irvin of Toronto Maple Leafs posted this note in the training hotel lobby at Preston, Ont.: "Yesterday was the last rehearsal for fancy skating. Sonja Henie has her partner."

So the Leafs went at one another with fire in their eyes on the ice. Jimmy Fowler came out of the practice with a double cut over the eye, inflicted by Nick Metz's stick.

Drive Was Scorching

CALEDONIA, Ont. (CP)—Baseball player Cecil Park lined a foul just outside first-base line. The ball struck a spectator and started a fire from a box of matches in his pocket.

Chicago Adds Scoring Punch

Northcott, Blinco and Robinson Will Bolster
Hockey Champions

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. — Chicago Black Hawks, who surprised last season by winning the Stanley Cup, abound with confidence they can repeat as world champions this year with the help of the newly-acquired forward line of Baldy Northcott, Russ Blinco and Earl Robinson.

The heavy scoring combination that came to Chicago from the defunct Montreal Maroons already is bidding for recognition as the Hawks' number one attack line and keen rivalry is developing in training between it and the Hawks' star line of Doc Romnes, Mush March and Paul Thompson. Romnes shows no effect of the leg injury that kept him out of 28 games last season.

A line on the Hawks' forward strength can be gauged by the fact the veteran Johnny Gottsell, leading scorer in the playoffs, is relegated to the third line. One certain mate of Johnny is Cully Dahlstrom, winner of last year's best rookie award.

KARAKAS SPEAKS

All of the Hawk champions are confident of the future, but Goalie Mike Karakas is far and away the most confident of all. "The new forward line is bound to give us added scoring punch," he reasons. "You have to remember we did all right last winter with the 'guns' we had. Add the new ones to that and what have you?"

Defensively the Hawks will depend on the old standbys. Earl Selbert, whose goal scoring tendencies almost equal his sturdiness in defence, will team with Wicke on the first line with Alex Levinsky and Bill MacKenzie for relief.

The club's ice workouts on the University of Illinois rink here were preceded by a long ordeal of calisthenics under supervision of Paul Thompson, pinch-hitting for the ailing Manager Bill Stewart.

FOUR APPEALS IN PERSON DISMISSED

Gerald O'Neill, convicted by Magistrate Henry Hall on a charge of attempting to break and enter the Victoria Meat Market, Pandora Avenue, on October 8, and sentenced to one year imprisonment, failed in a personal appeal before the Court of Appeal here today.

He was one of four whose efforts to have convictions quashed were unsuccessful.

J. P. Bird, sentenced to 18 months by Judge J. N. Ellis in County Court, Vancouver, on a charge of receiving stolen property, had his application withdrawn.

Olaf Olsen and Allen Cleary, who were sentenced jointly by Magistrate H. S. Wood, Vancouver, to two years on a robbery-with-violence count, failed with their appeals.

446 Members For Y.M.C.A.

Report on Membership Campaign Heard at Directors' Meeting

During the recent Y.M.C.A. membership campaign, 446 members were signed up, E. G. Rowbottom, chairman of the campaign committee, reported at a luncheon meeting of the "Y" board of directors today.

Approximately 100 persons worked on the campaign. Under Mr. Rowbottom were three main workers, W. W. Martin, assisted by Sam Hill, J. V. Johnson and Grant Paterson.

Making up the 446 members were, 150 renewals, 97 new members, 51 boy members, 59 badminton enthusiasts, 75 swimmers, both boys and girls, and 14 women for physical training courses.

A report from the physical department showed 117 sessions during 1938 in comparison with 110 in 1937 and 69 in 1936. There was a total of 1,605 in attendance during 1938, 1,611 in 1937 and 1,037 in 1936.

Numerous activities were reported from the boys' division. For gym and swim sessions during 1938 there were 32 in comparison with 30 the year previous and there was a total of 510 boys in attendance during the year, topped by 645 for 1937.

A house committee report showed that work on the building roof had practically been completed in addition to numerous other rehabilitations.

The social and education report submitted was favorable. H. B. Witter, president of the Y.M.C.A. was in the chair.

CHOIR REHEARSAL

The choir rehearsal of the Choral and Orchestral Union will be held in the Memorial Hall this evening at 8.30. New members wishing to sing or take part in the performance of "The Messiah" must register on or before October 28.

2nd CATHEDRAL SCOUTS

The meeting began with Flag Break and inspection. Games and work on scout badges followed. P.L.s Fell and Hill-Tout and Scout Robertson received badges. The meeting was followed by Court of Honor.

TOWN TOPICS

Theft of a tool kit from the home of W. Glenn, 1046 Mason Street, was reported to the city police yesterday.

Oak Bay Council will meet as a committee of the whole next Tuesday evening to discuss transportation matters in preparation for the city-municipal meeting to be held at the City Hall Wednesday afternoon.

Rear-Admiral Percy W. Nelles, R.C.N., accompanied by Lieut. Com. H. Kingsley, R.C.N., called on Lieut.-Governor Eric Hamber at Government House this morning. His Honor paid the admiral a return call at the noon hour.

The Victoria and District Trades and Labor Council, in a letter filed for council consideration, requested the city to refrain from taking action on the bus franchise question until the results of the Street Railwaymen's Association petition are known.

Six motorists were fined $2.50 each when they pleaded guilty in the City Police Court this morning to charges of overparking their cars in the business section of the city. Another driver was fined $10 for speeding in a school zone and another $20 for driving dangerously.

A joint meeting with the City Council at an early date to discuss the advisability of placing a money by-law before the electors in December to finance the construction of a civic forum under the federal loan plan, is asked by the Victoria Forum Association in a letter received today at the City Hall.

A. S. Denny will show lantern slides on his world tour, including English views and scenes in color, on Tuesday evening next at 8 at the Connaught Seamen's Institute for the benefit of the institute's work among seamen visiting this port and ex-naval veterans in hospital. A charge will be made, and it is hoped there will be a large attendance to help along this good work.

A general meeting of the Junior Chamber of Commerce will be held Monday night at 8 in the Chamber of Commerce committee room. At a meeting of the directors this morning, it was announced that Ernest H. Harris, past president of the local organization, had been chosen a British Columbia director of the Canadian Junior Chamber of Commerce, at the recently-held annual convention in Montreal.

Nelson's Signal Applicable Today

Dean Elliott Draws
Parallel Between Trafalgar and Present Events

Nelson's famous signal of the Battle of Trafalgar, flown at a period of British history closely paralleling that of recent months, is particularly applicable at the present day, Dean Spencer H. Elliott told the Canadian Club at a luncheon in the Empress Hotel today.

"The most pressing lesson of the moment is that we cannot expect Europe to be at peace if our part in the business is just not to bother... I do not believe the world will ever find equilibrium if people go about demanding what they call their rights or taking good care of their pleasures and privileges... Nelson gave us the lesson that every man must do his duty, not clamoring for his rights or tenacious of his ease and comforts," he said.

In the totalitarian states, he went on, people were forced to do their duties. Democracy and human liberty must not mean liberty for men to do as they pleased, but liberty to choose their course of action, and to follow it with the same duty and sacrifice forced on the people of the dictator-ridden countries.

Dean Elliott attacked publicists who were wise after the event, and started their utterances with "Now that we have had more time for reflection we begin to doubt the wisdom..."

"The question at the end of each man's contribution to history," he said, is not whether he has accomplished his ideal, but whether he has kept the spirit of his ideal in circumstances that thwarted him."

Both Neville Chamberlain and William Pitt, England's Prime Minister at the time of Trafalgar, had had to put aside their original ideals, which in both cases were economy and political reform, and adjust themselves to the circumstances forced on them.

The state of mind of England on October 21, 1805, had been exactly the same as it was in the last days of September of this year, with concrete preparations to meet an invasion in one case by sea and in the other by air. The reaction to Trafalgar and to the result of the Munich conference had also been very similar, he said.

He pointed to other similarities. France under Napoleon had been very similar to Germany under Hitler, as France at the time of the revolution had been like Russia under the revolution a corresponding number of years earlier. In both cases the peace-loving English people had been screwed up by events to a readiness for sacrifice.

"The crisis of the moment is past, but the crisis of the period is not past," said Dean Elliott. "Nobody can pretend that we can sit back and not bother any more." The dean was thanked by Commander T. Beard. J. W. Hudson, president of the club, was in the chair.

JITNEY MEN ASK CONSIDERATION

Jitney owner-operators on the Quadra Street route, in a letter received at the City Hall today, ask consideration for their case when the city makes its transportation franchise arrangements.

The jitney men state they have furnished a satisfactory service in the district they cover, have paid required trades licenses to the city, that they and their families are residents of Victoria and that they have expended considerable money in equipment which would be a loss to them if deprived of their routes.

"In conclusion," the letter stated, "we respectfully urge you to leave this route free when drawing up the new franchise or at least reimburse us for the living that would thus be taken from us."

It is signed by three owner-operators.

Time Marches On
IPSWICH, Eng. (CP)—An air-raid warden asked a dear old woman in a village near here: "May I fit you with a gas mask?" "No, thank you," she said, "we are on the electric now."

The Victoria Short-wave Club will meet at 2024 Carnarvon Road tomorrow night. All members are requested to attend as officers will be nominated for the following year. Following the business meeting there will be a technical discussion.

OBITUARIES

DICK—The funeral of Kathleen Edith Dick, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dick, took place yesterday morning from the Thomson Funeral Home to the Catholic Church, Songhees Reserve, where Mass was celebrated at 9 by Rev. Father A. B. Wood.

WHIFFLER—Mass was celebrated this morning by Rev. Father J. Crother, at St. Andrew's Cathedral, for Charles Whiffler. The remains were laid to rest in Ross Bay Cemetery and the following acted as pallbearers: R. Mather, H. Button, A. Larson, J. Anderson, J. Johnson and Fred Johnson.

POLLARD—The remains of Augusta Rose, wife of Fred Pollard, 931 Gillespie Place, who died on Tuesday last at the Royal Jubilee Hospital, were cremated privately at Royal Oak Crematorium yesterday. Mrs. Pollard was born in Yokohama, Japan, 53 years ago, and is survived by her husband; a son, William F., in England; one daughter, Mrs. L. G. Pacey, of Trinidad, B.W.I., but at present visiting in Victoria; also a brother and three sisters in Japan.

COOPER—Thomas Cooper of 2320 Trent Street, died last night at the Royal Jubilee Hospital, aged 75 years. He was born at Riscal, near Selby, Yorks, England, and farmed in Manitoba for 29 years before coming to Victoria 20 years ago. Funeral services will be held Monday afternoon at 2 at St. Mary's Church, Ven. Archdeacon A. E. de L. Nunn officiating, followed by interment at Royal Oak Burial Park. Hayward's B.C. Funeral Co. are in charge of the arrangements.

DELAMERE—Word has been received of the death in Denver, Colorado, yesterday of Matthew Delamere of Victoria, while visiting his son. Mr. Delamere was born in County Wicklow, Ireland, 83 years ago. He leaves his widow in Victoria, four sons, Matthew, at Brentwood; John in Denver, Albert in Prince Albert, Sask., and James in Glendale, Cal., and three daughters, Mrs. B. McDougall, Calgary; Mrs. H. S. Spencer, Victoria, and Mrs. C. Abbott, Vancouver. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

SIMPSON—Mrs. Mary Emma Simpson, aged 80 years, widow of James Simpson, died this morning at her home in the Mount Edwards Apartments. She lived for many years in the Kootenay, and had been a resident of Victoria since 1929. Survivors are one brother, Charles Living, in Westboro, Ont.; two sisters, Mrs. Florence O'Brien, Ottawa, and Mrs. Edith L. Morgan, Dellsle, Sask.; one niece, Helen Elizabeth Semple, Ottawa, and a nephew, Rev. Wm. H. Morgan, Calgary. The remains are resting at Hayward's B.C. Funeral Chapel, pending funeral arrangements.

HOLMES—Mrs. Louisa Frances Holmes, wife of Frank Holmes, died suddenly at the family residence, 582 Toronto Street, yesterday afternoon, aged 54 years. Mrs. Holmes was born in Dublin, Ireland, and had been a resident of this city for 25 years. She is survived by her husband, one son, Dean Henry Holmes, at home; a sister, Mrs. George Elgin, of 1138 Monterey Avenue, Oak Bay, and a nephew, Richard Little of Victoria, and relatives in Montreal. Prayers will be said at McCall Brothers' Funeral Home on Sunday evening at 8.30. The funeral will take place on Monday morning at 9 at St. Andrew's Cathedral, Rev. Father J. Crother officiating. Interment will be in Colwood Burial Park.

City Dispensary Costs Outlined

Establishment of a city dispensary to provide drugs and medical supplies for city relief cases could be undertaken at an initial outlay of $525, Vic Emery, prime mover in a scheme to provide such a service, stated in a letter received by Mayor Andrew McGavin and placed on file today for council consideration.

"A tremendous saving could be made," Mr. Emery stated in part. The sum he mentioned would provide sufficient drugs and chemicals, household drugs, purchased in bulk, absorbent cotton, bandages and specialties, which the doctors are prescribing regularly, products such as insulin, liver extract and vitamin products, infant and invalid food, labels, bottles and other equipment required in the average dispensary.

Festival Popular
STRATFORD-ON-AVON, Eng. (CP)—Nearly 200,000 people attended the drama festival in the Shakespeare Memorial Theatre here recently.

FRUIT PROBE UNDER WAY

A preliminary inquiry into charges of a fruit marketing combine in western Canada is now under way at Vernon, Attorney-General Wismer said today following his return from the Okanagan.

Mr. Wismer said that all sides will be heard by F. A. MacGregor, Dominion combines officer, and Alan MacLean, departmental solicitor from here.

They will listen to the allegations launched by Godfrey Isaacs, Oyamla grower, and others who are supporting him, and give the companies against which the charges are made an opportunity to state their position.

Upon the report by the departmental officers the federal government will determine whether a complete public probe under the Combines Investigation Act is justified.

Inmates of the Old Men's Home were entertained last night by the United Commercial Travelers' Glee Club, directed by Samuel Winterbottom. Alderman Burges J. Gadsden was chairman at the entertainment. Assisting artists were Bert Lilley, comic songs, and Bert Zala, pianist. Refreshments were served by George Havard, superintendent, and members of his staff.

IF YOUR EARS

RING WITH HEAD NOISES

If you have ringing, buzzing noises in your ears, are getting hard of hearing and fear Catarrhal Deafness, go to your druggist and get 1 ounce of Parmit (double strength), and add to it 1/2 pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar. Take 1 tablespoonful four times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing becomes easy and the mucus stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Anyone who has Catarrhal trouble of the ears, is hard of hearing or has any noise should give this prescription a trial.

Letters to the Editor

NOW A LIBRARY TAX

To the Editor:—According to the newspapers "a proposal originating with the union of British Columbia municipalities to permit municipalities to levy a tax on property for library purposes" is evidently being considered. Well, all I can say is, it is time the ratepayers of Vancouver Island and other British Columbia cities got together and formed a British Columbia Ratepayers' Association.

Ratepayers all over the province to meet wherever they are living.

When one considers that the union of British Columbia Municipalities consists of mayors, reeves and aldermen, it is time the ratepayers themselves decided that ratepayers will not take it any longer in the neck and be burdened with extra taxation. We are all taxed beyond reason for everything. No wonder so many properties are reverted. People are dead tired of owning property and taking over other people's burdens, paying for many frills that cities and municipalities pile on them. Cities and municipalities are being extravagant and will be as long as they are allowed to pack the load on the property owner.

It is to be hoped all the members of the provincial government at this coming session will squash the proposed library tax on ratepayers, if it comes before the House, and see to it that other impositions on property owners are abolished.

Meanwhile property owners of Vancouver Island and all British Columbia property owners should get together and form a combined property owners' association. We must fight for our rights.

COSTLY JUBILATION

To the Editor:—Permit me to draw attention to the headlines, as carried by the world press, following the signing of the peace pact by the big four at Munich.

What would appear to be most important to Canadians and English-speaking peoples generally, is the joint Chamberlain-Hitler statement to the effect that they regard the Munich agreement and the Anglo-German naval agreement of 1935 as symbolic of a decision by the two peoples never to go to war with one another again.

Various other headlines which the press paraded before the public were to the effect that Hitler seeks no more European areas and that the Fuehrer has renounced claims to other lands. "Battalions of prayers best means for peace," and "in shadow of war, their prayers were answered," and finally, "Chamberlain may be knighted for peace effort," "Throngs dance joyously in streets of London."

All these headlines were considered worthy of emphasis.

Innumerable expressions have been voiced from many lands, many condemning, and many praising, the actions as expressed by these headlines.

The majority of those that praised, were those who had prayed, and danced joyously at the outcome, and who are now, after a few days time in which to reflect, beginning to wonder if their period of elation was not a very expensive moment from many angles, the financial amounting to something over $5.00 per head, for every man, woman, and child, in Great Britain. In other words, that country paying to Germany approximately 13 1/2 tons of gold at a time when many of their citizens are suffering from malnutrition caused by an inadequate dole to their unemployed, there are other angles which are gradually impinging on the minds of many people, and not without very valid reasons—reasons in fact, which compel the idea of wondering why a man like Chamberlain, possessed of the acme of culture, and all British traditions back of him, should condescend to have any talk or parley with a man of Hitler's type, especially when it is realized that this man's hands are bathed in the blood of thousands of Jews and other so called Christians.

Perhaps, it is true what Harry Emerson Fosdick stated last Sunday, "that the fire which melts the butter will also harden the egg," thereby compelling many to very unwilling acceptance of the fact that "capitalism has no further use for culture," and proving that those who fight desperately to maintain the old order are forced into "immoral" and "uncivilized" methods in their defence.

TAXI METERS

To the Editor:—I read that the taxi companies of Victoria are trying to have a by-law passed for a definite taxi rate in Victoria and the adjoining municipalities.

Why don't the companies go a little farther with their efforts to have tariff meters installed like all sensible cities have done. Not only for the protection of the company but the public as well. My experience has been that when I take a taxi in Victoria with one driver my fare from town to my home would be 45c, with another driver of the same company it would be 55c, and I have paid as high as 65c for the same ride.

When the occasion arises for me to go to the C.P.R. wharf from my home it costs 65c to 75c; it depends on the driver. When I take a car from the wharf to my home it costs $1.

I personally like to give a tip, not have it added on to my bill. When visiting Vancouver or Seattle I always go to the same hotel from the docks. Since meters have been installed there my taxi fare has not varied one cent. I always know what I should pay by just looking at the meter.

The meter system not only protects the public protection, but protects the companies also.

I've been tempted many a time to complain to the company about the driver's charges, but thought differently after realizing I would probably jeopardize the driver's job.

Meters have been proven by other cities to be the right solution for the problems of taxi companies, public and drivers. Why not have meters here?

EXPECTS CLASH EVENTUALLY

To the Editor:—Four-power pact! How long will these so-called Christian nations be able to keep their hands out of each other's pockets? These nice-looking bed-fellows remind one of the automobile accident. His honor to the witness: "Now, Mr. Smith, you saw this accident. What do you think was the cause?" "Well, your honor, as far as I was able to see, it was caused by the fact that both automobiles were chasing the same pedestrian and therefore they crashed."

The four powers, Britain, France, Germany and Italy are bound to crash eventually. No more foreign markets to exploit—Ethiopia, most of Spain, the coast cities of China, and now Czechoslovakia. Hitler lifted 75 million pounds sterling from Austria when he saved Austria from Mussolini domination. The bleeding continues and still the appetite of Hitler and his Nazis grows, and will not be appeased until what is now Britain's colonial empire is a part of a well-planned Germanic empire.

The Hard-headed Business Man and His Foolish Wife

(A Short Story Complete in Two Pictures)

Warner Comedy At Dominion

Reunited after a screen separation of almost three years since they made "Celling Zero," James Cagney and Pat O'Brien are co-starring in "Boy Meets Girl," the Warner Bros. comedy about Hollywood which opens today at the Dominion Theatre.

Teamed before in pictures which were mainly grim and serious, Jim and Pat on this occasion played their roles entirely for amusement value, and for the first time in their careers, they put on a lampooning show of two typically wacky Hollywood writers.

In "Boy Meets Girl," they head a cast which also includes that pretty, blonde comedienne, Marie Wilson, in her first leading role—said to be a "natural" for her—Ralph Bellamy, in what is reported to be his best part since "The Awful Truth," Dick Foran and Frank McHugh. Others are Bruce Lester, James Stephenson, Dennie Moore and Penny Singleton.

CAPITOL THEATRE

Dramatic true-life story of Father Edward J. Flanagan and his fight to establish a home for underprivileged boys, "Boys Town," starring Spencer Tracy and Mickey Rooney, is now showing at the Capitol Theatre. When Father Flanagan founded his first home, two newsboys and three juvenile delinquents were its occupants. From this modest start, courageous Father Flanagan worked for 21 years to build Boys Town, Nebraska, an incorporated village of 275, of which 200 are boys.

PLAZA THEATRE

One of the more ardent cyclists on Hollywood way is Neil Hamilton, who rides a wheel continually. His wheel was very much in evidence on the Republic lot during the filming of "Portia on Trial," which is now being featured at the Plaza Theatre with an all-star cast headed by Frieda Inescort.

ATLAS THEATRE

Edgar Bergen and Charlie McCarthy, acclaimed the greatest entertainers in history, are starred with Adolphe Menjou and Andrea Leeds in Universal's John M. Stahl production, "Letter of Introduction" at the Atlas Theatre today.

COLUMBIA THEATRE

Appearing in his first starring role, Smith Ballew firmly establishes himself as one of the leading outdoor heroes to flash across the action screen in Harold Bell Wright's greatest film, "Western Gold," 20th Century-Fox release, now at the Columbia Theatre.

OAK BAY THEATRE

Miss Joy Hodges, featured in Universal's "Merry-Go-Round of 1938" now at the Oak Bay Theatre, has been heard on coast-to-coast broadcasts with the orchestras of Jimmie Grier, Carol Lofner and Ted Floto. She was with the Joe Penner radio hour, singing with Ozzie Nelson's organization, and has been a radio star for years.

Record Freight Season in North

EDMONTON (CP)—Freight carried in the north this season by railway and freshwater routes will exceed 36,000 tons to set a new high record, it was indicated today by estimates of two firms, Northern Transportation Company and Hudson's Bay Company's Mackenzie River transport. The figure would include freight carried both north and south, mostly supplies and over. A. M. "Matt" Berry, manager of Northern, estimated the total of Northern would approximate 11,000 tons. M. L. "Mickey" Ryan, manager of Mackenzie, estimated 20,000 tons for the Hudson's Bay Company. It was estimated other transport firms operating on north waterways would have carried at least 5,000 tons by the end of the season.

Canada Has Much To Sell Tourist

G. G. McGeer Believes 40,000,000 Could Be Welcomed Annually

VANCOUVER (CP) — G. G. McGeer, K.C., Liberal member of Parliament for Vancouver-Burrard, believes Canada could welcome 40,000,000 tourists a year, instead of 20,000,000, if the tourist trade industry in the Dominion were properly developed.

Mr. McGeer told members of the Junior Board of Trade Thursday that "Canada has more to sell in tourist trade goods than any other country in the world."

He suggested Vancouver could help develop the industry by completing the highway to Gabriola Park, creating a national sports centre on Hollyburn Ridge, north of the city, enlarging park and beach facilities and by providing the city with an auditorium and other public buildings.

CANADA BOMBER GETTING TESTS

MONTREAL (CP) — First of Canada's new twin-engine bomber and reconnaissance flying boats is almost ready for test flights at the Canadian Vickers factory here.

The eight-ton flying boat, first of several supermarine "Straners," was launched into the St. Lawrence River and was undergoing final fitting today.

The big boat, powered with twin Bristol Pegasus X engines with a combined output of 2,000 horsepower, will carry a crew of eight at a top speed of 165 miles an hour, at 5,000 feet. It has an absolute altitude of 21,800 feet with service load. There are sleeping and eating accommodations for the crew.

Both vessels, which were purchased from the British Admiralty, are sister ships to H.M.C.S. Fraser and H.M.C.S. Laurent, at present stationed here.

Around The Docks

BROUGHT LIGHT LIST

Less than 100 passengers were aboard the Canadian - Australasian liner Niagara when she made port last night from the Antipodes.

There were but 42 in the first class, 32 tourist and 19 third class, about half of the total disembarking here. The only travelers of note, outside of the Canadian delegates to the British Commonwealth Relations Conference, was Blake Pelly, aide-de-camp to the Governor of New South Wales, and Mrs. Pelly, proceeding through to London; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Cumming, world tourists, and Miss A. M. Knight, English girl guide commissioner, who is returning home after visiting New Zealand.

Niagara, which carried upwards of 2,000 tons of Australasian products, cleared at midnight for Vancouver. Capt. William Martin reported a splendid passage, but rough seas and fog were encountered as she neared the coast.

DESTROYERS SOON DUE

Canada's newest destroyers, H.M.C.S. Ottawa and H.M.C.S. Restigouche, bound here from England via Montreal and Halifax, are expected to reach Esquimalt November 7, it was learned here with the arrival of Rear Admiral Percy W. Nelles, R.C.N., from Ottawa. The two destroyers were reported passing through the Panama Canal yesterday.

Both vessels, which were purchased from the British Admiralty, are sister ships to H.M.C.S. Fraser and H.M.C.S. Laurent, at present stationed here.

OF FAMOUS FAMILY

While in Australia as a member of the British delegation to the Commonwealth Relations Conference, Hon. Hugh Wyndham met several members of the famous Wyndham family in the land of the Southern Cross. "We have quite a branch of the family in Australia, about 70 members altogether," said Mr. Wyndham. They are descendants of Wyndham's who went out to Australia in 1826.

Mr. Wyndham is a first cousin of the late George Wyndham, former member in the British Commons for Dover.

From 1910 to 1920, Mr. Wyndham resided in South Africa and was a member of the South African Assembly when Botha was premier. He now makes his home in London but is still interested in colonial affairs.

NORAH IN DRYDOCK

After disembarking the special mining party from Zeballos yesterday, S. Princess Norah of the C.P.R. fleet, shifted to Esquimalt for cleaning and painting in drydock.

Yarrows Limited floated the Norah into the basin at 8 this morning and expect to complete the work on her by tomorrow.

UFFINGTON HERE

Ss. Uffington Court, arriving from Montreal to the Vancouver-St. Lawrence Line, was off Race Rocks at 4:30 this afternoon, and is expected alongside the Canadian National docks by 6.

Capt. E. J. Clark is in command of the British freighter. She will discharge 400 tons of eastern Canadian cargo for local consignees before proceeding to Vancouver.

Air Command Established

Headquarters at Toronto, Minister of Defence Announces

OTTAWA (CP) — Establishment of an air training command for Canada, with headquarters at Toronto, was announced officially today by Hon. Ian MacKenzie, Minister of Defence. At the same time the minister confirmed that, following the set-up on the Pacific Coast, an eastern command had been created for the Royal Canadian Air Force, with headquarters at Halifax.

The function of the air training command will be to direct and coordinate aviation instruction in the R.C.A.F. The main training station at Trenton will eventually come under the jurisdiction of the officer in charge of air training, Air Commodore Earl Godfrey.

Chiefly, it was explained, the object is to remove from the headquarters staff here the details connected with the actual day to day training of pilots.

The eastern command, under Wing Commander G. R. Brooks, will be "operational" and although aspects of training will be supervised within the eastern area by the commanding officer, this, in the main, will be directed from Toronto.

V—GERMANY TRIES TO PAY

Seventeen hundred and fifty thousand German soldiers died in the World War. More than 4,000,000 others were wounded, or were lost and counted as "missing." A vast number of the wounded became lifelong cripples.

It was a fearful price to pay, but it was not the end. The nation did not have enough food, and a vast number of people starved to death.

Friedrich Ebert, first president of the German republic.

Help came from abroad. Kindly persons— chiefly citizens of former "enemy nations"— gave money for food to be shipped to the starving, or half-starving, millions.

Yet it was not enough. Children did not have proper food. Five years after the Armistice of 1918, I visited Germany and saw something of the misery of the people.

Well do I remember a party I gave in Munich for six boys and six girls. Afterward I overheard a little girl about 12 years of age tell her aunt about the party.

"Oh, auntie!" she exclaimed. "We had bread with butter on it, and cocoa made with milk!" The same little girl gave me a picture of herself. "That picture," she said, "was taken years ago, when it was not so hard to get something to eat." Her thin face lighted with a smile as she spoke, but it was a rather sad smile.

The war had cost the Allies about $125,000,000,000. At the close, they felt Germany should pay as much as possible, to make up for the cost. A bill for $33,000,000,000 was made ready, and efforts were made to collect it.

A German republic had come into being, and the men in charge of it tried their best to raise the money needed to pay what they had promised. Friedrich Ebert, a Socialist, was the German president at the time.

There were groans as each payment was made. The nation had been almost wrecked by the war, and now it seemed that the wreck would be made complete.

Interest piled up, and there was fear that Germany would "crack" under the strain. For this reason, new plans were made to collect the debt. The Young plan and the Dawes plan were made, and the Allies agreed to cut down the debt to about $8,000,000,000.

Several years ago, Great Britain and France decided there was no use in trying to collect the bill from Germany. They had been able to get only a small part of what Germany owed them, and that is the main reason they have not been able to make full payment of their war debts to the United States.

HOROSCOPE

Saturday, October 22, 1938. After the morning hours benefic aspects rule today, according to astrology. Workers are subject to adverse planetary influences which will intensify industrial contests.

Women will be wise to concentrate upon personal or domestic interests today which is forbidding to those who seek public service or business engagements.

Girls are warned against a sway that encourages acceptance of favors from men. Too many dinners and dances may be most unfortunate this season.

Foresight may be kept after the noon hour. For those who prepare for next week's activities clear vision regarding future conditions is indicated.

As shorter working hours are more widely advocated many novel methods of recreation will be devised. Centres for group amusements will become popular.

Shopping is under a most favorable rule of the stars which promises large profits to merchants and manufacturers.

Persons whose birthdate it is have the augury of a year of difficulties affecting social relations, but money will be plentiful for many.

Children born on this day probably will be witty and clever. Many subjects of this sign are artistic and highly intellectual since they combine Libra and Scorpio characteristics.

Dorothy Dix's Letter Box

DEAR MISS DIX—Do you think the girl who is always trying to save a boy's pocketbook, even though she may not be going to marry him, is appreciated as much as the gold-digger who is out for all she can get? I have always in mind the fact that a boy may not have a great deal of money and try to keep him from spending money upon me, but my friends say I am foolish not to take all I can get, and certainly, as far as I can see, I get no thanks from the boys. So where am I?

MABEL

Answer: From the way boys complain about how the girls hold them up, and what it costs to take a Jane out for an evening's diversion, I should think that all the young men of your neighborhood would fall on your neck with loud cries of gratitude.

For the gold-diggers certainly are heartless robbers. They go on the assumption that every youth is a millionaire, although they work right at the next desk to him and are perfectly aware that his pay envelope has no more in it than theirs.

They may know that one dinner-dance will send him to a cheap lunch counter for a month; that a taxi takes the shoes off his feet, and a theatre strips the coat from his back, but so long as they are given a good time they should worry over what happens to the poor simp who lets them hold him up with a pair of blue eyes, and who hasn't enough backbone to say "no" to a female grafter if she has a peaches-and-cream complexion.

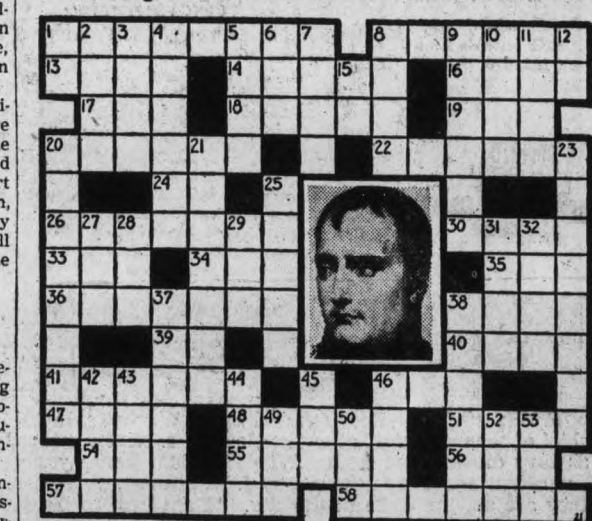

So one would think that the boys would simply mob the girl for dates who had enough heart and conscience to spare their pocket-books; who would eat enough at home to stay her stomach until she got back, and who was willing to dance to a radio instead of demanding to be taken to a club where there was a twenty-piece jazz band.

But men are funny things and there is no understanding them when it comes to the question of women and money. Somehow, they always want to make a lordly gesture with their wallets before a girl. They may know that she knows to a penny how little is in it, but they make the grand flourish, anyway, as if they had the whole United States Treasury behind them.

The poorest boy is nearly always the one who grabs up the check and pays it, who sends the girl the longest-stemmed roses, who buys the most expensive seats at the theatre and who gives a dollar tip when a dime was all that was needed.

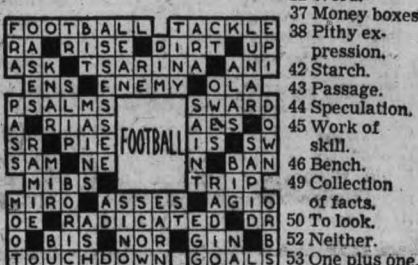

DOROTHY DIX.

GRAPE HARVEST TIME IN SAANICH—H. M. Parker, pictured here, in his Brentwood vineyard, was one of the first in Saanich to go into grape growing commercially. His success since he put in his vines nine years ago, experimenting with Island Belles or Campbell's Earlies, has been one of the chief factors in the rapid increase in grape acreage throughout Saanich during the last couple of years. It is because of Mr. Parker and experimental growers such as he that the local retail demand for the concord-type of grape is now supplied by local producers. The local grapes are also taken in large quantities by the wineries and by the hospitals which use them to make fresh grape juice for patients. This year's Saanich grape harvest was not as heavy as the record production of last year, but the grapes are larger. The local grapes are consistently sweeter and of a higher sugar content than the Concord which were formerly imported in large quantities from the east.

INSPECTS NAVY—Rear-Admiral Percy W. Nelles, R.C.N., chief of the naval staff at Ottawa, and Mrs. Nelles, snapped as they disembarked from Ss. Princess Marguerite yesterday afternoon. They were met by J. W. Spencer, with whom they are staying while in the city. "I am here to inspect the naval establishment at Esquimalt. My visit has no other significance," he said.

BACK FROM RELATIONS CONFERENCE—Canada's delegation to the British Commonwealth Relations Conference at Sydney, N.S.W., were passengers aboard the liner Niagara, arriving last night from Australia. Left to right in the above picture are: Dr. F. H. Soward, professor of history, University of British Columbia; Dr. Norman A. M. Mackenzie, professor of international law, University of Toronto; Dr. K. W. Taylor, professor of economics at McMaster University; E. J. Tarr, K.C., of Winnipeg, president of the Canadian Institute of International Affairs, and Dr. George Britnell, professor of political science, University of Saskatchewan. See story on page 5.

ESCAPES KILLERS—Great Britain's District Governor of Jerusalem, Edward Keith-Roach, above, narrowly escaped death or serious injury when four bombs hurled at his car by assassins failed of their purpose. Neither he nor the occupants of three official cars which accompanied him were hurt. The attack, which occurred in front of the Rockefeller Museum in Jerusalem, was one of the boldest in a series of anti-British outrages.

STUDENTS HONORED TODAY—Among recipients of scholarships and prizes awarded at the end of last year to top-ranking students of Victoria College were those in the above picture. Eight other winners, who are continuing their studies at the University of British Columbia and other educational centres, were not present at Victoria High School today to receive their awards. Those in the picture are as follows: Front row, left to right, Maureen Evans, winner of the University Women's Club scholarship of $100 awarded to the woman with the highest standing in the first year, and winner of a special prize of $50 for excellence in beginner's Latin; Alice M. Quayle, winner of the Quita Nichol Bursary of $50 donated by Mrs. W. C. Nichol for excellence in first-year French; A. M. Frances Wallace, winner of the Agnes Deans Cameron scholarship of $50 donated by Mrs. F. V. Longstaff for the student ranking highest in first-year English; Margaret Lowe, winner of a special prize of $50 for first place in first-year Latin; back row, John Meredith, student council president and winner of the Kiwanis Club scholarship of $100; Bruce Mickleburgh, winner of the Kathleen Agnew scholarship of $100 for the stimulation of the study of Canadian History; David Cunningham, winner of the Quita Nichol bursary of $100 for excellence in first-year French; and Donald H. Robson, winner of the David Spencer Ltd. scholarship of $100 for the student ranking highest in first-year mathematics. He also won a slide rule for excellence in science.

$50,000 WORTH OF GOLD—Hon. W. J. Asselstine, B.C. Minister of Mines, (left) wears a broad smile as he sits beside the first batch of gold produced from the new mill at Privater Mine, Zeballos. The "buttons" of bullion shown in the picture were photographed before they were melted down and poured into bricks. Mr. Asselstine poured the first one at the ceremony on Tuesday. Standing at the rear, facing the camera, is Henry Shoemaker, who supervised the construction of the 75-ton cyanide mill. At the right bending over to examine the gold is Frank Woodside, president of the B.C. Chamber of Mines.
